Clergymen Review The True Meaning Of Easter

By ROSE NUZZO

A return to the ideals for which Christ died on the Cross is seen as the answer to the unrest and uncertainties of today's world by area clergymen on the eve of Good Friday.

As thousands prepared to mark the climax of Holy Week, three representative church leaders commented on the meaning of Easter 1968.

FR. WILLIAM J. Lawler, pastor of the St. Aloysius Catholic Church, declared: "Each time we pick up the newspaper, each time we listen to commentators on television or radio, we become more disheartened by the sad state of world affairs. We are acquainted with threatened wars between nations, impending riots in our large metropolitan areas, dire disturbances in our national, state and local governments and uneasiness in the hearts of our people.

"In this Holy Easter season, let us redouble our prayers to the Risen Saviour, asking, that as he came back to life from death on the first Pasch, he may, on this, its holy anniversary, hear our humble supplications and grant peace in our time to individuals, to governments, to nations, and to each and all of our mortal and human institutions."

STRESSING "love, peace and forgiveness," the Rev. H. Gene Toot, pastor of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, said: "Seldom, if ever, has our nation been in such a state of turmoil, unrest and division. Engaged in a war which no one wants, and no one knows how to stop; divided into almost

U.S. Studies Hanoi Proposal

Warsaw Eyed On Talks; 24,500 Reserves Called

LBJ's Aides See Plan Reasonable

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top U.S. officials began immediate study today of a reported North Vietnamese proposal that preliminary U.S.-North Vietnamese peace discussions be held in Warsaw, Poland.

The Warsaw report came in a Moscow dispatch by Tass, the official Soviet news agency.

The initial reaction among President Johnson's advisers was reported to be that the proposition seemed reasonable and probably would be acceptable.

Officials would not be surprised, it was said here, if the arrangements for the talks were now to be made so quickly that they could be opened some time next week.

Tass said in a dispatch from Hanoi it had learned from reliable sources there that the North Vietnamese government had decided on the Polish capital after the United States refused its first suggestion, Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital.

Tass said: "It is believed in Hanoi's authoritative circles that the U.S. refusal to accept Phnom Penh as the meeting place may be taken to indicate that the United States delays solution of this question."

The Soviet news agency said North Vietnam had received a reply from the United States to its suggestion of Phnom Penh and this had "voiced disagreement."

"This decision by the United States cannot but cause wonder," Tass continued, "because the United States has repeatedly expressed willingness to send its representative to any point on the globe to establish contacts with a representative of the DRV, Democratic Republic of Vietnam.

"It was also learned from reliable sources today that the Democratic Republic of Vietnam has now suggested Warsaw as the venue of a preliminary meeting with a U.S. representative," Tass went on.

No other details on the proposals were given.

The Tass dispatch from Hanoi noted in expressing "wonder" about the U.S. position on Phnom Penh that Cambodia's Prince Norodom Sihanouk had agreed to a U.S.-North Vietnamese meeting in his capital and promised "all conditions will be created for it."

The North Vietnamese proposal, as described by Tass, referred only to a preliminary meeting in Warsaw. No mention was made of a possible site for peace talks that might result from this.

10,000 For Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford today announced he is calling to active duty about 24,500 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists. About 10,000 will go to South Vietnam.

In his first full-dress news conference, the new defense secretary said that President Johnson intends at this time to limit U.S. forces in Vietnam to 549,500—representing an increase of 24,500 over the present ceiling.

Clifford linked this presidential decision to limit further U.S. deployment to another major decision "to turn over the major effort gradually to the South Vetnamese."

The new secretary, in office only six weeks, said the decision to move toward turning over the biggest part of the war effort to Vietnam has been made after months of consultations with the Vietnamese and took into account the Saigon government's decision to boost its forces by 135,000 men.

Clifford, who has played a major role in high-level government discussions leading to the peace moves, said that "after a halting start" messages are not going back and forth between the United States and the North Vietnamese. He described them as formal in tone.

The new Pentagon chief said the 24,500 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists being called to duty for up to 24 months are in some 88 units.

"Each man will have a minimum of 30 days' notice before reporting," Clifford said.

Johnson in February called to active duty 14,787 air reservists in the wake of the North Korean seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo.

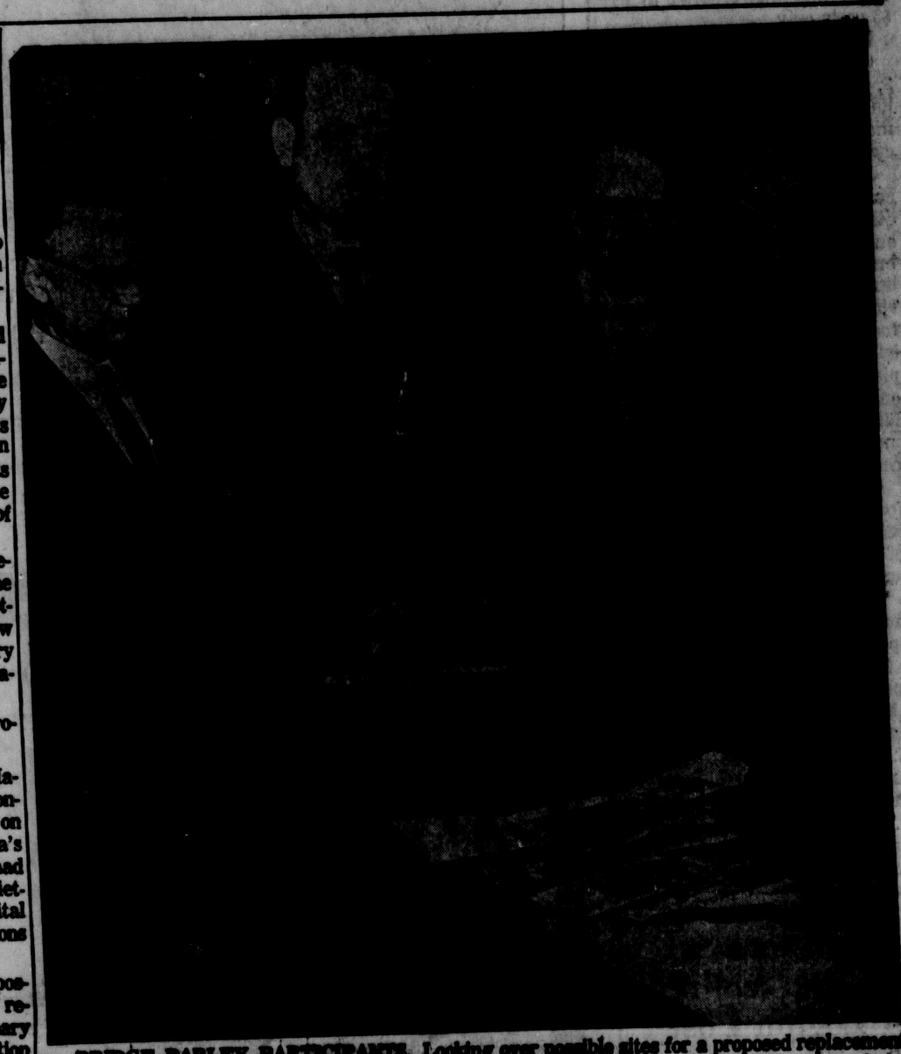

These men are still on active duty. None have gone overseas as yet.

The new call-up, in part to strengthen the depleted strategic reserve of crisis-ready troops in the United States, thus will bring the reserve mobilization to about 39,000.

Clifford did not indicate when the 10,000 newly called reservists will go to Vietnam.

He indicated that some of the other 14,500 who will be placed in the strategic reserve may be sent to Vietnam ultimately as individual replacements.

The shipment of the 10,000 will represent the first commitment of reservists to the Vietnam war.

Toll Span Seen Solution To Chester Bridge Snarl

By TOM FUTHEY

A new toll span appears to be the most logical solution to the problem created by the load limit now in effect on the Chester bridge across the Ohio River.

That was the consensus after a three - hour discussion here Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting of some 40, presided over by Atty. Francis Lang, chairman of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce's highway committee, saw area businessmen and politicians discuss the possibility of a "free" bridge as opposed to a "toll" span.

IN AN EFFORT to keep the ball rolling, a delegation of the Northern Hancock County Development Council plans to present shortly a program to Gov. Hulett C. Smith of West Virginia at Charleston.

Gov. Smith, when he inspected the Chester Bridge two weeks ago, pointed out he does not believe either Ohio or West Virginia has sufficient funds to build a toll - free facility.

All possible speed was urged yesterday toward activating plans for immediate replacement of the Chester span lest the area lose industry as a result of circuitous truck routes now in force.

Levi (Jack) Kimball, deputy Ohio highway director from the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia, and David Krueger of Charleston, a representative of the West Virginia State Road Commission, discussed the possibility of cooperation between the two states on a new span.

THE SITUATION now stands, Kimball declared, "that we have a bridge, but that's about all." But, he added, the engineering firm that performed a study of the bridge recommends that the load limit be held at 2½ tons, since irreparable damage has been caused to the main cables.

Kimball said he believes the quickest way to bring a new bridge to the East Liverpool area is by pursuing a toll span. He indicated Ohio could participate in the project as long as its share of expense covers nothing beyond the low water mark in the Ohio River, the official boundary of the two states.

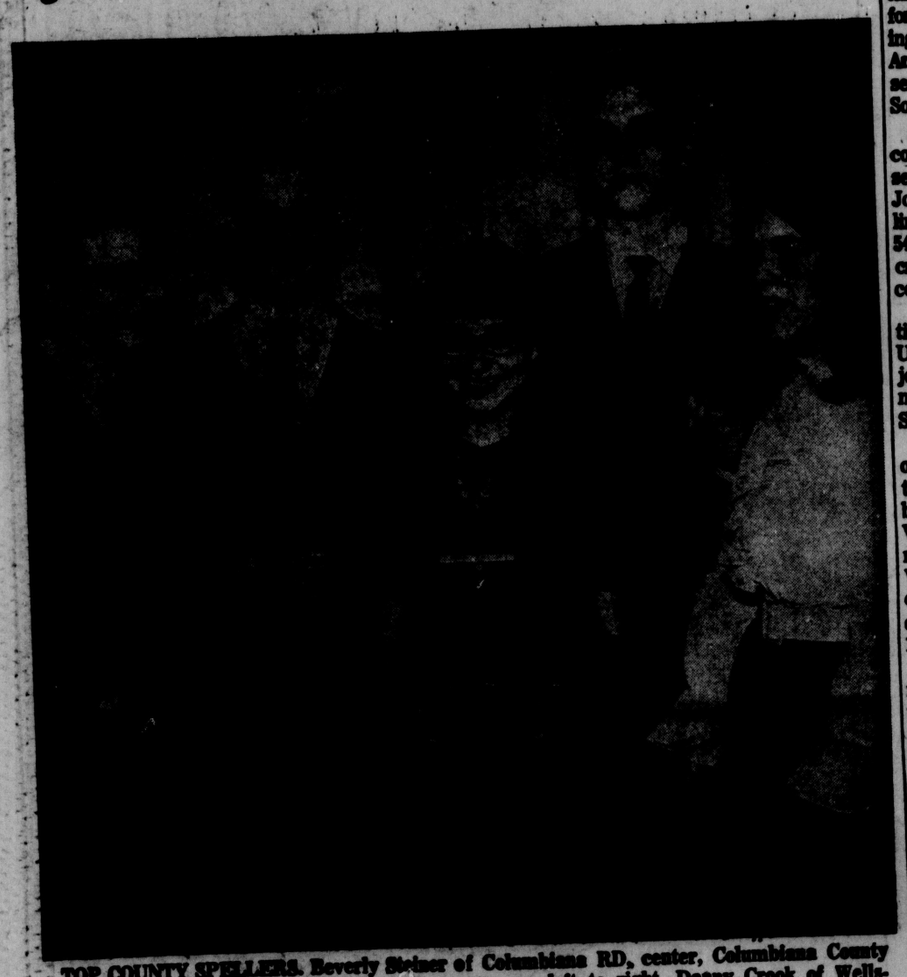

"Ohio will do whatever is necessary from the low water mark to the shore", Kimball assured. But West Virginia must initiate the project, he added.

Presently the state shares the maintenance of the bridge carrying Interstate 70 from Bridgeport to Wheeling Island, but Beverly Steiner, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steiner of Columbiana RD 1, outlasted Andrew Bevan of East Liverpool, the 1967 champion, to capture the county title in a spelldown Wednesday night at David Anderson High School in Lisbon.

SHELLEY, Idaho (AP) — There was a brief impasse when Mrs. Dee Mansfield was sentenced by police Judge Carl Hall to pay a $5 fine or spend 24 hours in jail for keeping a dog in the city limits without a leash.

Mrs. Mansfield appeared at jail, demanding to serve her sentence. Judge Hall and Police Chief Ed Beck refused to jail her because, they said, she had pre-school age children.

Mrs. Mansfield said she had arranged for a babysitter and still wanted to go to jail.

Open-Housing Bill Wins Applause

Landmark Civil Rights Legislation Passed By House, Sent To Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional passage of landmark open-housing legislation has won applause from civil rights leaders along with renewed demands for massive federal attacks on shabby housing and unemployment in riot-prone slums.

A 250-171 House vote Wednesday sent to the White House a civil rights bill to outlaw discrimination in the sale or rental of 80 per cent of the nation's housing by 1970.

President Johnson said he would sign it into law as soon as possible.

The House action followed by a day the funeral of slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, whose numerous campaigns often focused on open housing.

It also came after a week of widespread racial violence following King's assassination—and it was in that atmosphere that one Southerner explained why he voted for the bill.

"I think this bill is symbolic," explained Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La. "Either we move ahead as one people or we move toward a police state."

Johnson hailed passage of the bill but also urged Congress to enact the rest of his program, including housing and job programs.

After King's slaying, the President said he would address Congress to outline an expanded social program. But he postponed a scheduled appearance last Monday and has not set a new date.

The President's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, which recommended a massive social program aimed at eradicating slum problems, scheduled an emergency session.

Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, commission vice chairman, said it's too late to help the people killed and wounded in the week of rioting but added: "It is not too late, however, for the nation to move against this crisis with the urgency and enterprise that the commission sought to generate."

Lindsay didn't specify when the meeting would be held, nor did he say what further moves would be made to win acceptance for its recommendations. But he said that as a beginning, the Senate should restore funds for summer programs in slums.

The Senate moved in that direction Wednesday, rejecting a money bill from which the House had stripped $75 million for the job program and $25 million for the Head Start preschool program.

Committees Set During Meeting Of Legion Post

Named by Comdr. Densel McKinney, they include: Membership, Harry Dawson Sr., chairman, William Sillince and John Borsos; auditing, George Bartley, chairman, James Wallover, Wayne Dorsey, Michael Bohar and Louis Krawiec; by-laws, Robert Milne, chairman, Wilbur Harmon, Wallover, Robert Poynter and James Cregar.

The post purchased two Ohio state flags. One was presented the Newell Drum Corps for use when it participates in Ohio parades and the other was retained by the post.

Poynter and Milne, co-chairmen, said the 10th District convention will be held at the post June 8-9.

Kenneth Youst, first vice commander, said the membership has attained 555.

An American Legion emblem plaque, purchased recently by the post's Auxiliary, will be put into place soon, the commander said.

Col. Stanley Brugh, ROTC instructor at East Liverpool High School, attended the meeting and the color guard of the ROTC posted the colors.

About 50 attended.

The next meeting will be Monday at 8 p. m. in the post home.

19 Members Initiated At BPW Meeting Here

Nineteen new members were initiated into the East Liverpool Business and Professional Women's Club during a candlelight ceremony Wednesday night following the dinner meeting at the Travelers Hotel.

They were introduced by Mrs. Ernest Lowe, membership committee chairman.

The initiation ceremony was conducted by Miss Joan Witt, a past president and current state corresponding secretary. In her talk, Miss Witt used a rainbow of lights indicating the attributes of good club members. She continued with "the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow" and pointed out "the reward of every member of the federation is loyal friendship, fine leadership and united citizenship."

THE INITIATION service concluded with all new members reciting the Pledge of Membership. Each new member was presented with emblem charms.

Following the ceremony, a reception line was formed and the 19 new members were greeted by the club membership.

Those inducted were: Miss Sally Anderson, secretary, East Liverpool schools; Mrs. Bonnie Carlisle, office manager, Tri-State Producing; Mrs. Marjorie Dysert, teacher, Wellsville schools; Mrs. Eliza Evans, travel supervisor, AAA; Mrs. Barbara Fischer, registered nurse, City Hospital; Mrs. Mary Jane Fone, private secretary, Hune, Inc.; Mrs. Jane Gadd, assistant instructor of nursing, City Hospital; Mrs. Nancy Haught, department head, J. C. Penney Co.; Miss Sondra Johnston, assistant instructor of Nursing, City Hospital; Mrs. Annabelle Keys, teacher, retarded school; Miss Frances Leon, teacher, Edison Local; Mrs. Dorothy Lynch, teacher, Westgate School; Mrs. Margaret Mays, Beaver Local cafeteria; Mrs. Geraldine Reed, display advertising manager, D. M. Ogilvie Co.; Mrs. Marguerite Sayre, secretary, real estate agency; Mrs. Grace Shaffer, teacher, Chester schools; Miss Helen Sinclair, head of personnel and purchasing, Metsch Refractories; Miss Cheryl Talbott, schedule clerk, Ohio Bell Telephone, and Miss Kathy Vincent, sales representative.

DURING the business session which followed, the club elected nine delegates to the 49th annual convention of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs May 17-19, in Cincinnati.

They are: Mrs. John Bebout, Mrs. Charlotte Cole, Mrs. Joseph Manypenny, Mrs. Lawrence Sixt, Mrs. Richard Springer, Mrs. Margaret Thompson, Mrs. Senja Vaughn, Mrs. Vernon Walrath and Mrs. Ellis Wright. Mrs. Bebout, Mrs. Sixt, Mrs. Springer and Mrs. Thompson have been assigned to serve on convention committees.

The club also elected a nominating committee which will present a slate of candidates for election at the May meeting. Committee members are Mrs. Herbert Plotts, chairman, Mrs. Robert McKim and Mrs. Glen Roberts.

Mrs. Springer, chairman of the club's W.R.A.P. Defensive Driving Program, announced plans for the seminar which will be held on Sunday, April 28, at the First Methodist Church from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. The course is free and open to the public.

Certificates will be presented those who complete the course. There are no tests or exams for the participants. Instructors include H. Jud English of the automobile club; Ryan Snyder, safety expert for insurance companies, Columbiana; Charles DeJulius, local driving instructor; Arthur McDevitt, postal safety officer, and Cpl. M. R. Smith of the Ohio Highway Patrol.

OTHER business included the endorsement of the club of Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh for national chairmanship or office. Correspondence was read from the state president and from the district director, Evelyn Thomas from Youngstown.

The theme for the evening was Easter. Easter bonnets served as name tags and place cards and Easter bunny dolls made by Mrs. Blackburn of Smiths Ferry and bunnies and paper flowers made by students of Mrs. Kapp and Mrs. MacBurney at Westgate were on each of the tables. Favors were hand-decorated Ukrainian Easter eggs which were made by Mrs. John Clendenning.

Oak Glen's PTA Selects Officers

Mrs. Wilbur Staley was elected president of the Oak Glen Parent - Teacher Association during a meeting Tuesday in the school's Little Theater.

Other officers are Mrs. Eldon Gray, first vice president; Mrs. John Abrams, second vice president; Miss Sarah Thomas, secretary, and Mrs. James Ryan, treasurer. Mrs. Claudius Ford, chairman of the nominating committee, conducted the installation.

Mrs. Eugene Seeley presented a program on the Citizens Scholarship Foundation.

Mrs. Joseph Nemeth, past president, said the Hancock County PTA Council Banquet will be held May 23 at 6:30 p.m. in the Multi - Purpose room at the high school. Tickets may be obtained until May 15 from Mrs. Staley.

A workshop will be held April 30 in the New Cumberland School. All new officers are to attend.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Carl Durham, Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Donald Thornberry.

Man Held At Chester On Charge Of Assault

Terry Wayne McKinney of East Liverpool is in Chester jail today in lieu of $32.50 bond after being charged with assault and battery following an argument with a woman companion Wednesday at 10:35 p.m. on Railroad St. in Chester.

Verna Jenkins of Homestead Ave. was treated at city hospital for what was first reported as a stab wound of the upper right arm. She later told Chester police she cut her arm after being knocked to the ground by McKinney following an argument.

McKinney will be given a hearing Monday at 7:30 p. m. before Mayor Burton Ward of Chester.

Chamber At Midland Slates Mother's Day Essay Contest

A "Mother's Day" essay contest for Midland grade school children was announced when the Midland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met Wednesday night at the McGeehan Agency.

Students in grades four through six at the public and parochial schools are eligible. May 3 will be the deadline. Entries may be given to Mrs. Dorothy Ferretjans, chairman of the special activities committee, at the White Front Dairy.

The Chamber will award the winning mother a bouquet of flowers and a gift. The Midland Junior Women's Club will judge the essays which are to be from 75 to 100 words.

A discussion was held on the possibility of providing flags for businesses along Midland Ave. for the July 4th parade.

Anthony Martell, retail chairman, said he attended a meeting of the July 4th executive committee Wednesday. The Chamber will solicit members and other businesses for the annual event. Merchants who donate $25 will be given a special placard. Merchants will be asked to distribute $1 donation tickets at their places of business.

Joseph Scalise Jr., president, conducted business. The next meeting will be May 8 at 7:30 p. m.

House Fails Pressure Tactic

A House-Senate compromise has eased the immediate pressure for action on the tax increase-budget reduction measure.

The compromise comes in the form of an agreement between House and Senate conferees for a temporary extension of excise taxes.

The Senate approved a bill last week combining a 10 per cent tax increase with a $6 billion reduction in federal spending and a one-year extension of telephone and auto excise taxes.

Action by the conference of House and Senate members clears the way for full congressional approval of an extension of the excise taxes to April 30 and delays action on the Senate package.

The House might have been more receptive to the Senate bill calling for a sizable spending cut and a rollback in the number of federal employes along with the tax increase except for the fact it is the constitutional prerogative of the House to initiate tax measures.

House conferees, including Rep. Wilbur Mills, influence and determination of Rep. Mills He Means Committee, refused to go along with the Senate proposal. The House is working on its own measure. The temporary action on excise taxes will give the House enough time to formulate its proposal.

The administration and its supporters in the Senate tried to ram through the tax increase by using the pressure of a need for continuation of telephone and auto excise taxes. Legislative authority for the pair of taxes ended April 1.

Again the administration underestimated the influence and determination of Rep. Mills. He has remained adamant on the issue of a tax increase. He believes — along with a lot of other Americans — that a tax hike without deep cuts in federal spending programs would only add to the problem, not help alleviate it.

The House apparently is preparing a measure that will be comprehensive enough to cope with the monumental mess in Washington created by wild spending and payroll padding.

An anxious public will be awaiting the House measure — hoping it will signal a new era of economic sanity for this nation that is moving ever closer to the brink of economic chaos.

Reluctant Speller

A baseball-loving, piano-playing Columbiana area girl will lead a delegation of five top Columbiana County spellers to the regional competition at Canton later this month.

Beverly Steiner, who won the county title in a 27-round battle at Lisbon last night with the aplomb of a princess at a prayer meeting, has confessed she holds no great love for spelling, and doubts if she will bring the regional trophy home.

But what she lacks in ambition is more than compensated by skill. She and her four county companions have the qualifications to take them beyond the regional event — and we hope one of them does.

What's Going On In Poland?

Just what is happening in Eastern Europe?

Various interpretations are being given for the current stirrings and rumblings within some of these Russian satellite nations.

The president gave "deteriorating health" as his reason for seeking to resign. Although only 61, he has had chronic eye trouble and is nearly blind.

The credibility of official explanations for government shifts of personnel in high office in Communist nations is so bad that they generally are greeted with derision in the West.

In President Ochab's case, the official explanation could be true.

Many observers feel, however, that the resignation is part of a power struggling believed to be going on between the Communist party chief, Wladyslaw Gomulka, and a powerful group of World War II Communist underground fighters called "partisans."

Without benefit of more information and intelligence reports, it is difficult to be sure just what is occuring within Poland, which has seen 38 persons purged from government or party posts within the last month.

But if the partisans are truly ultranationalists, it would seem their effort must be directed toward moving away from Moscow and toward a restoration of Poland as an unfettered nation.

The Familiar Hymn

The familar old hymn, "Softly and Tenderly, Jesus Is Calling," was sung at the funeral service as one of the favorite selections of the slain civil rights leader.

The melody and words were strange to few Americans, for the hymn, written here in 1880 —first under the title "For You and For Me" —has been a popular sacred song for over 85 years.

Thompson (1847-1909) was a modest and generous man who gave the city Thompson Park and contributed to the library, City Hospital and many churches, and who would have been pleased at the use of his hymn for the Tuesday service — as his minister said of him: "He was a man who came down and stood 'in the plane' as one willing to hold fellowship with the poor as well as the rich. He was interested in people, not in people's money or social standing. . . What he cared for was truth and righteousness and God."

Tourists Important To Ohio

There is a meeting going on in Cincinnati this week aimed at getting more tourists into Ohio this year.

The Ohio Travel Council is holding the conference but what is going on is important to every Ohioan. Promoting tourism is a responsibility shared by all Buckeye State residents.

Why?

Because every dollar spent in the state by tourists helps an Ohioan keep a job. But that isn't all. Fred Neuenschwander, chief of the Ohio Development Department, reports that money left in Ohio by tourists reduces the taxpayer burden in the state by $420 million a year.

How can a Buckeye citizen help?

By talking up the attractions offered through parks, memorials, museums, amusements, sports events, camping facilities, lodges and an infinite variety of festivals and special events to fit every taste.

In talking and wiring to friends outside the state, the word will be spread that Ohio is worth a stopover during a vacation or a good spot forweekend trips.

The state has been actively engaged in enticing tourists to Ohio for years. It has paid off handsomely. With additional help from all of the state's residents in telling the Ohio story, the reward will be even greater.

WASHINGTON — The most interesting thing about Hanoi agreeing to talks — any kind of talks — is that both the Doves and the Hawks maintain they are responsible for Ho Chi Minh answering the telephone.

Art Buchwald

A group of Doves and Hawks were flying around my living room the other night, and each was claiming victory for his cause.

"I told you the Tet offensive was a victory for our side," a Hawk said. "Hanoi is on its knees and that is why it agreed to talks."

"Balderdash," a Dove said angrily. "The Tet offensive proved once and for all that we could never win the war in Vietnam, and we'd have to go to the table whether we wanted to or not."

"Fulbright's moustache," another Hawk shouted. "Westmoreland said we had the enemy on the run, and they had run out of steam. Hanoi failed to take over the cities and arouse the populace. The Saigon government held the Communists had tremendous losses. The bombing policies finally paid off.

"A pox on the bombing policies," a Dove's wife cried. "If we had stopped bombing long ago, Hanoi would have been willing to negotiate then. They said they'd talk if we stopped bombing."

"Aha!" retorted a Hawk. "But we didn't stop the bombing. We de-escalated the bombing, but we didn't call it off. Yet they still agreed to talk. This proves they couldn't take any more."

My wife said, "Does anyone want any cheese dip?"

"President Johnson has finally faced up to the realities of the situation. Unless we wanted to pour in another 500,000 men, we wouldn't be able to get anywhere in Vietnam. And even then we wouldn't get anywhere. If it hadn't been for McCarthy and Kennedy, he still would have been bombing Hanoi and Haiphong."

A HAWK roared, "McCarthy and Kennedy had nothing to do with the President's decision. He always said he would talk if the other side would talk. Now that the other side has decided to talk, the Doves have taken credit for it."

"Why shouldn't we take credit for it?" a Dove said. "The military has been misleading the country for four years. If the Doves hadn't spoken up, heaven knows where we'd be right now."

"If the Doves had shut up," the Hawk replied, "Hanoi would never have been encouraged to continue the war."

My wife said plaintively, "The cheese dip is really very good."

"That's a stupid Hawk argument," a Dove yelled. "Every time we told the truth we were accused of giving aid and comfort to the enemy. We didn't give aid and comfort to the enemy. The Hawks did when they thought they could terrorize Hanoi into coming to the conference table on their knees."

"We never had a chance to use our military power," a Hawk said. "If we had been allowed to do what we wanted to do, Hanoi would have damn well sued for peace. It was you nervous Nellies who prevented the military from using everything they had."

"If you don't want the cheese dip," my wife said, "there are some wonderful watercress sandwiches."

"THERE NEVER was a military solution to Vietnam," a Dove said. "There had to be a political solution, and we never could find it."

"So now," said a Hawk, "we'll reward Hanoi for her aggression."

"No one is going to be rewarded for anything,' the Dove said. "We're trying to stop the fighting. Is that a bad thing?"

"And what about the Domino Theory?" the Hawk said.

"To hell with the Domino Theory."

By this time there were feathers all over the living room, and my wife was pleading, "If you don't want the cheese dip and you don't want the water-cress sandwiches, will you at least eat cocktail sausages? They won't keep."

Lo, The Poor Indian

Help Provided In Very Slow Stages

The Bureau of Indian Affairs began a program at Roswell, N. M., under which 65 Indian families, 10 "solo" parents with one or two children each, and 150 single persons will learn the skills and experience necessary to live in an urban setting. A similar program is under way at Madera, Calif.

Federal aid for the American Indian proceeds at the speed of a racing tortoise. The fiscal 1969 budget asks for $384,915,000 for various types of Indian activities, as against $336,357,000 appropriated for this fiscal year only $26,818,000 more than the estimate of actual spending this year.

Two years ago, President Johnson observed: "Far too many of our Indians live under conditions which make a mockery of our claims to social justice."

Declaring that the time had come "to put the first Americans first on the agenda," the President promised to place his "full power" behind efforts to reorganize the Bureau of Indian Affairs "to get the job done."

The Indian Bureau operated 277 schools and dormitories in 1965. Today there are 265 schools and dormitories.

The 1969 budget requests an additional $23,328,000 for Indian education and welfare programs, including funds to initiate a kindergarten program in Indian schools.

A total of 170,000 Indian students, ages 6 to 18, are enrolled in regular public schools and federal, private, and mission schools — as against 134,064 in 1964-65.

The Division of Indian Health of the Public Health Service operates 51 hospitals, ranging from 14 to 400 beds, 53 large health centers, and several hundred field clinics. This is as against 40 hospitals and 46 large centers two years ago. On duty are 335 physicians, 105 dentists, and 908 nurses — levels only slightly higher than those of two years ago.

President Johnson promised in his 1967 State of the Union Message that his administration would make "a major effort to provide self-help assistance" to American Indians. Very little was accomplished last year.

The administration's Indian Resources Development Act of 1967 received hearings in both chambers of Congress, but no action was taken. Late in the session the Senate Judiciary Committee reported a bill to protect "certain rights of the American Indian."

A blistering report supposedly based on secret findings of a 1966 White House task force calls the administration bill "a tragic misconception of the needs of the Indian population and the means which must be made available to Indians if they choose to move away from their traditional culture and toward that of the non-Indian society."

Written by Herbert E. Striner of the Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, the report likens the Johnson bill to "developing a repair manual for a 1967 Rolls Royce before we have successfully built a 1928 Model A Ford."

Indian Affairs Commissioner Robert L. Bennett on Feb. 13 said the government was moving away from its traditional strong paternalism toward Indians. Instead, he said, the government tries to create an "environment" in which Indian leaders make their own decisions.

This seems to be the rationale behind two current programs to teach Indians to cope with urban living. Meanwhile, the promised restructuring of Indian aid has become another victim — in a money sense — of the war in Viet Nam.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Lesson Learned?

The fighting in Vietnam may stop within a few months — but this will not necessarily mean peace. It looks as if the procedure will resemble that which brought a halt in hostilities between North and South Korea. While military operations were eventually suspended, neither side has ever given in at the peace table since the negotiations — which are still going on — began in July 1951.

At the forthcoming conferences between North Vietnam and the United States, unquestionably an agreement will be sought to secure an armistice. The first several weeks and perhaps months of the negotiations will be concerned with just how each side will reduce its military activities and what promises will be made that a truce would be respected.

IT IS SIGNIFICANT that, when the North Vietnamese government decided to accept President Johnson's offer to participate in peace talks, the advice of Red China to turn it down was apparently disregarded. There are reports the Russians were not told in advance of Hanoi's decision, but finally came to the conclusion it was desirable to support the action. Thus, both Moscow and Peking are free to utter their criticisms and to carry on a constant propaganda of denunciation of the United States during the talks.

Entirely apart from the role that may be played by Red China or the Soviet Union, it is most important that the solidarity of the South Vietnamese be maintained. To achieve this purpose, the United States will have to keep in close consultation with the Saigon government and not make any move that arouses a fear among the people of South Vietnam that they might be abandoned and threatened with a stronger hold by the Communists on the whole area.

While the United States is anxious to bring an end to the Vietnamese struggle, it does not seem logical that there will be any withdrawal of troops or agreements to give up territory now belonging to South Vietnam unless there is clear evidence of the intention of the Hanoi government to fulfill its pledges and despect any settlement reached.

People in the United States will draw much encouragement from the mere fact that the talks are beginning. Parents of boys who might be drafted will derive hope that maybe their sons will not have to go to war. But there's no certainty as yet that the North Vietnamese will make the kind of agreement which will permit the United States and its allies to cease military operations.

In fact, it will have to be proved the North Vietnamese are not playing tricks and do not intend to use a prolonged peace conference or even a temporary armistice as a device to build up strength for a resumption of the war. This makes it exceedingly difficult for America to promise to withdraw the major part of its forces unless the United Nations or a group of the principal powers of the world is ready to underwrite the agreement and to send their own armies to back it up if an emergency arises.

JUST WHAT motivated the North Vietnamese to come to the peace table has not been revealed. It is believed, however, that the punishment meted out in the last few months by the military forces of South Vietnam and their allies was far more damaging than has been admitted. For its own reasons, the Hanoi government decided at least to explore a means to stop fighting and to try to make peace. The United States has made no fundamental change in its determination to hold the line until signs of reciprocal concessions can be clearly seen.

The Vietnamese war has been costly to both North and South Vietnam, and it will take years to establish in the two regions stable governments which are willing to live at peace with each other. The issues at the coming conferences are vital to all Vietnamese factions. But they are even more important to other peoples in Southeast Asia as well as the United States who wish to make sure the painful lesson of the Vietnam War has been learned — that the Communists must not repeat their acts of aggression.

House Fails Pressure Tactic

A House-Senate compromise has eased the immediate pressure for action on the tax increase-budget reduction measure.

The compromise comes in the form of an agreement between House and Senate conferees for a temporary extension of excise taxes.

The Senate approved a bill last week combining a 10 per cent tax increase with a $6 billion reduction in federal spending and a one-year extension of telephone and auto excise taxes.

Action by the conference of House and Senate members clears the way for full congressional approval of an extension of the excise taxes to April 30 and delays action on the Senate package.

The House might have been more receptive to the Senate bill calling for a sizable spending cut and a rollback in the number of federal employes along with the tax increase except for the fact it is the constitutional prerogative of the House to initiate tax measures.

House conferees, including Rep. Wilbur Mills, influence and determination of Rep. Mills He Means Committee, refused to go along with the Senate proposal. The House is working on its own measure. The temporary action on excise taxes will give the House enough time to formulate its proposal.

The administration and its supporters in the Senate tried to ram through the tax increase by using the pressure of a need for continuation of telephone and auto excise taxes. Legislative authority for the pair of taxes ended April 1.

Again the administration underestimated the influence and determination of Rep. Mills. He has remained adamant on the issue of a tax increase. He believes — along with a lot of other Americans — that a tax hike without deep cuts in federal spending programs would only add to the problem, not help alleviate it.

The House apparently is preparing a measure that will be comprehensive enough to cope with the monumental mess in Washington created by wild spending and payroll padding.

An anxious public will be awaiting the House measure — hoping it will signal a new era of economic sanity for this nation that is moving ever closer to the brink of economic chaos.

Reluctant Speller

A baseball-loving, piano-playing Columbiana area girl will lead a delegation of five top Columbiana County spellers to the regional competition at Canton later this month.

Beverly Steiner, who won the county title in a 27-round battle at Lisbon last night with the aplomb of a princess at a prayer meeting, has confessed she holds no great love for spelling, and doubts if she will bring the regional trophy home.

But what she lacks in ambition is more than compensated by skill. She and her four county companions have the qualifications to take them beyond the regional event — and we hope one of them does.

What's Going On In Poland?

Just what is happening in Eastern Europe?

Various interpretations are being given for the current stirrings and rumblings within some of these Russian satellite nations.

The president gave "deteriorating health" as his reason for seeking to resign. Although only 61, he has had chronic eye trouble and is nearly blind.

The credibility of official explanations for government shifts of personnel in high office in Communist nations is so bad that they generally are greeted with derision in the West.

In President Ochab's case, the official explanation could be true.

Many observers feel, however, that the resignation is part of a power struggling believed to be going on between the Communist party chief, Wladyslaw Gomulka, and a powerful group of World War II Communist underground fighters called "partisans."

Without benefit of more information and intelligence reports, it is difficult to be sure just what is occuring within Poland, which has seen 36 persons purged from government or party posts within the last month.

But if the partisans are truly ultranationalists, it would seem their effort must be directed toward moving away from Moscow and toward a restoration of Poland as an unfettered nation.

The Familiar Hymn

The familar old hymn, "Softly and Tenderly, Jesus Is Calling," was sung at the funeral service as one of the favorite selections of the slain civil rights leader.

The melody and words were strange to few Americans, for the hymn, written here in 1880 —first under the title "For You and For Me" —has been a popular sacred song for over 85 years.

Thompson (1847-1909) was a modest and generous man who gave the city Thompson Park and contributed to the library, City Hospital and many churches, and who would have been pleased at the use of his hymn for the Tuesday service — as his minister said of him: "He was a man who came down and stood 'in the plane' as one willing to hold fellowship with the poor as well as the rich. He was interested in people, not in people's money or social standing. . . What he cared for was truth and righteousness and God."

An East Liverpool youth and his father filed a $60,000 traffic injury action Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon against a youth convicted of first-degreee manslaughter last November as a result of the same accident.

Ronald L. Wine, 19, of 951 Huston Ave. and Leslie L. Wine are suing Daryl Lee Jackson, 19, of 1068 Jennings Ave. for $50,000 and $10,000, respectively.

Their petition alleges young Wine received a fractured skull and brain concussion and severe multiple lacerations and contusions last May 26 when a compact driven by Jackson went out of control and struck a tree.

Jerry Canne, 17, formerly of 143 Thompson Ave., was killed in the crash which occurred on the Grimms Bridge Rd. as the boys were returning from a senior class picnic along the creek.

A Common Pleas Court jury convicted Jackson of the manslaughter charge Nov. 14 and Judge Joel H. Sharp subsequently overruled defense counsel's motion for a new trial.

The court sentenced Jackson to a $500 fine and six months in the County Jail, but suspended $300 of the fine and all but 30 days of the jail sentence conditioned on his good behavior.

Judge Sharp granted a defense motion for a stay of execution of sentence pending appeal and the youth was placed under $1,000 bond. That entry, made Dec. 21, is the last in the case.

12 More Treated At City Hospital In Emergencies

Also treated were Ann L. White, daughter of Mrs. Betty White of 1019 Ephriam St., a contusion of the right hip in a fall down stairs at East Liverpool High School; Mrs. Willie Smith of New Cumberland RD 2, a contusion of the right hand when it became caught in a wringer.

Bud Bright of Pittsburgh, an employe of Raymond's Concrete Pile International, Inc., multiple abrasions and a small laceration while at work at the atomic plant at Shippingport; Harvey McCauley, son of Mrs. James Wilkinson of 1116 Vine St., a laceration of the forehead on glass.

Robert VanDyke of Lawrenceville, a laceration of a finger on glass; Clyde A. Reed, son of Delbert Reed of 3rd St. Ext., a laceration of the right second finger on glass.

Bridge

only because it has been determined that the Ohio boundary actually lies on the island and not in the water. So as not to cause confusion, the state participated in the building of the span, Kimball explained.

Federal funds for the Wheeling bridge amounted to 90 per cent of the total cost, with Ohio and West Virginia splitting the remaining 10 per cent. But, Kimball noted, that is only because the project is part of the Interstate Highway system.

JAMES EDWARDS, owner of Waterford Park race track, asked the men if a financing arrangement similar to the one for the Silver Bridge, which collapsed into the Ohio River in December, couldn't be worked out for a "bridge that for all practical purposes has been condemned."

Krueger indicated the federal government has made concessions in the Point Pleasant case.

"Do we have to wait for a bridge to fail here before we get federal participation?" Edwards then asked.

Kimball said presently only about $2 million is available from the Appalachian Development Commission for the Silver Bridge at Point Pleasant, "but there's got to be more because it's going to cost about $13½ million".

Of that figure, the federal government may pay half, with the two states supplying the remaining 50 per cent. But, West Virginia probably would provide two - thirds of that figure and Ohio will supply the smaller share.

If West Virginia wants to build a "free" bridge, Kimball concluded, Ohio will take care of its portion of the new span. Kimball also speculated East Liverpool might have to "kick up" a share of the cost, since the new bridge probably will lie within the city limits.

WEST VIRGINIA will present to its voters in November a $350 million bond issue and Ohio a $750 million issue. The state representatives indicated the passage of the two measures is almost imperative if immediate attention is to be given the local situation.

Of West Virginia's $350 million, $108 million would be available for undesignated projects and some of it could be used to build a new bridge. The remaining $242 million would be used for the state's Appalachian highway system.

Lang asked the men if a four-lane or two - lane bridge is being considered, and Kimball replied that plans haven't progressed that far yet.

The possibility was discussed of relocating Route 30 through Pennsylvania to the Vanport bridge, which will connect a freeway with the Parkway at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport. Some of those present expressed the belief that Pennsylvania may do nothing with the present route 30 and eventually reroute it and others added that if the federal government won't give funds to the state for the project, Pennsylvania has sufficient monies to carry out the project itself.

Route 30 runs about 2.3 miles in West Virginia and some 25 miles in Pennsylvania before it connects at Imperial with four-lane Route 22.

KRUEGER agreed with Lang that before final determination can be made in the project the future of the present Route 30 will have to be known.

Walter Durkin of the Weirton - Steubenville Transportation Study Committee declared that Gov. Smith has directed that immediate attention be given the problem here. He added that Smith said in Weirton that there should be no problem in obtaining a new bridge within 24 months.

"We have a nice economic plum in Hancock County," he continued, but it might slip from the area's grasp if a new bridge is not erected in the near future.

This sentiment was echoed by many of the Hancock businessmen and industrialists who attended the meeting.

Charles Taylor, president of the North Hancock Development group, added, "Ohio won't wait much longer for West Virginia. If something isn't done soon, we'll be has beens on the other side of the river."

Taylor said he proposes the group suggest to Gov. Smith that a four - lane bridge be constructed and the highway to the Pennsylvania line run between Chester and Newell, bypassing Chester altogether.

"We should fight for this," he declared.

Taylor then produced a letter written in 1964 by the West Virginia Road Commission advising his group that the commission was making a study then whether a four - lane highway is justifiable. The results still are not known, he said.

"We have an economic crisis here and these companies will leave if we don't do something," he warned.

"I'm a little embarrassed that we brought all these people here and now we've got them bottled up here." He continued there has been a lot of publicity on the matter, but little action.

WILLIAM Schneider, chairman of the Ohio Bridge Commission, outlined the duties of his group and reported the commission presently has no authority to build bridges. The commission was created solely to buy bridges and administer them.

George A. Shaw, president of the Chamber of Commerce, outlined the possible cost of a new bridge at $14 million, adding that if 50 per cent were paid by the federal government that would still leave $7 million to be met. He then asked if a reasonable toll could be imposed in light of the gigantic cost of the new facility.

Schneider noted that some sort of balance would have to be struck.

Krueger said if a toll bridge is built, it is doubtful there will be any federal participation.

Schneider added that currently about 16,000 vehicles use the Chester Bridge, thus making it reasonable to assume there would be enough traffic to operate a toll span.

West Virginia Sen. William Tompos of Weirton, who attended, announced his willingness to assist in whatever way possible and George H. Grodhaus of the West Virginia Department of Commerce outlined possible participation by his office.

KIMBALL said there was a flurry of activity last summer when the Ft. Steuben bridge was closed for repairs, but he doesn't believe that area is "one bit closer to a solution now as then."

State Rep. Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel of Columbiana County declared special legislation might be enacted to get the project rolling from Ohio's standpoint, but that could not come until the legislature again convenes next January. He added it is doubtful that Gov. James A. Rhodes would call a special session to consider the question.

Those present also agreed that the two state highway departments probably will have the final say in determining the availability of funds.

Joe Wells Jr. of the Homer Laughlin China Co., attempting to fire the group to action, declared,

"We need action immediately. We can't wait until January; we would like to have a free bridge, but we have to be realistic.

"Gov. Smith says that neither state has funds for a free bridge. We might as well accept the fact that it's going to be a toll bridge."

Durkin then replied that Gov. Smith "made no innuendo about the inability of funds" to build the bridge.

He stated, Durkin continued, that the bridge could be completed in 22 months, but in his best judgment it will have to be a toll bridge.

The meeting concluded with the North Hancock group assuming the responsibility of submitting a program to Gov. Smith in the very near future.

William F. Porter of Globe Refractories asked that the group present recommendations to both the West Virginia Road Commission and the Ohio Department of Highways to determine the kind of bridge and its possible location.

Among others attending the meeting were State Sen. John Longsworth of Salem; J. William Shultz, secretary - treasurer of the Ohio Bridge Commission, and Mrs. Letha Astry, a member; Floyd Lower of the Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission; Jack Evans, president of the Hancock Court of Commissioners, and Norman Ferrari, chairman of the SWATS committee.

Drop Reflects Lull In Fighting

GIs Killed In War Last Week Hit 2-Month Low

SAIGON (AP) — The number of American troops killed in combat in Vietnam last week was the lowest in 2½ months, the U.S. Command announced today.

U.S. headquarters said 279 U.S. troops were killed in combat during the week that ended last Saturday at midnight. It was the lowest toll since the start of the Viet Cong's big lunar new year offensive on Jan. 29.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland's headquarters said the drop reflected a lull in the fighting that has been developing for the past month. However, the number of U.S wounded last week totaled 3,190, only 696 less than the week before, and the South Vietnamese command said its dead increased, from 393 the week before to 407 last week.

Enemy casualties also were considerable, although the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands could not agree on the figure. The Americans reported 2,251 enemy killed last week, the South Vietnamese reported 4,012. The reports of enemy dead from the two commands frequently differ, but usually not by that much.

Military spokesman said government troops had been very active, particularly in the Mekong Delta below Saigon, and had engaged the enemy in a number of small skirmishes.

One explanation for the higher number of American wounded was that despite the absence of major ground fighting, the enemy continued harassing attacks by artillery, rockets and mortars. Such attacks usually result in a high number of wounded from flying shrapnel.

In a special casualty report, the U.S. Command said 93 American troops were killed during the 76-day siege of Khe Sanh and 400 wounded troops were evacuated from the Marine combat base just below the demilitarized zone. The announcement did not give the number of wounded who did not have to be evacuated.

Meanwhile, the lull in the ground war continued, with no significant contact reported yet in the biggest allied offensive of the war, the sweep by 100,000 troops looking for an estimated 18,000-20,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in the 11 provinces around Saigon. The operation, named Complete Victory, is now in its fourth day.

"It appears they aren't ready to fight," said a U.S. spokesman. "With their supplies dependent on hand-carrying things, bicycles and sampans, they've probably used what supplies they had stockpiled. They lost over 47,000 men in the Tet offensive. After losses like that, you don't go into action in quite some time.

"Tey apparently have fallen back to regroup, to get replacements. Now is the time to go get them, now that they are hurting. We've got to maintain the pressure on them."

Khe Sanh was quiet for the second day Wednesday as North Vietnamese gunners fired not a single round of artillery, mortar or rockets into the combat base.

Book Discussion Set Tuesday For Midland Library

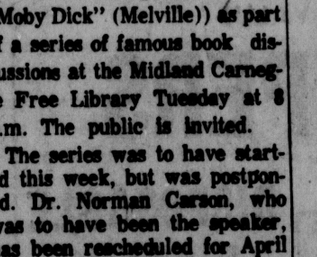

Miss Margaret Cowmeadow of Geneva College will review "Moby Dick" (Melville)) as part of a series of famous book discussions at the Midland Carnegie Free Library Tuesday at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

The series was to have started this week, but was postponed. Dr. Norman Carson, who was to have been the speaker, has been rescheduled for April 23.

Miss Cowmeadow is a native of New Castle and has been a member of the faculty of Geneva College since 1960. She received her undergraduate degree from Slippery Rock State College and a master of literature degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

She has done graduate work at the University of Colorado and Pennsylvania State University. Before entering college teaching, Miss Cowmeadow taught in Shenango High School and in a private school in Hollywood, Calif.

No membership statistics of the Christian Science Church are published.

Taylor said he proposes the group suggest to Gov. Smith that a four - lane bridge be constructed and the highway to the Pennsylvania line run between Chester and Newell, bypassing Chester altogether.

"We should fight for this," he declared.

Taylor then produced a letter written in 1964 by the West Virginia Road Commission advising his group that the commission was making a study then whether a four - lane highway is justifiable. The results still are not known, he said.

"We have an economic crisis here and these companies will leave if we don't do something," he warned.

"I'm a little embarrassed that we brought all these people here and now we've got them bottled up here." He continued there has been a lot of publicity on the matter, but little action.

WILLIAM Schneider, chairman of the Ohio Bridge Commission, outlined the duties of his group and reported the commission presently has no authority to build bridges. The commission was created solely to buy bridges and administer them.

George A. Shaw, president of the Chamber of Commerce, outlined the possible cost of a new bridge at $14 million, adding that if 50 per cent were paid by the federal government that would still leave $7 million to be met. He then asked if a reasonable toll could be imposed in light of the gigantic cost of the new facility.

Schneider noted that some sort of balance would have to be struck.

Krueger said if a toll bridge is built, it is doubtful there will be any federal participation.

Schneider added that currently about 16,000 vehicles use the Chester Bridge, thus making it reasonable to assume there would be enough traffic to operate a toll span.

West Virginia Sen. William Tompos of Weirton, who attended, announced his willingness to assist in whatever way possible and George H. Grodhaus of the West Virginia Department of Commerce outlined possible participation by his office.

KIMBALL said there was a flurry of activity last summer when the Ft. Steuben bridge was closed for repairs, but he doesn't believe that area is "one bit closer to a solution now as then."

State Rep. Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel of Columbiana County declared special legislation might be enacted to get the project rolling from Ohio's standpoint, but that could not come until the legislature again convenes next January. He added it is doubtful that Gov. James A. Rhodes would call a special session to consider the question.

Those present also agreed that the two state highway departments probably will have the final say in determining the availability of funds.

Joe Wells Jr. of the Homer Laughlin China Co., attempting to fire the group to action, declared,

"We need action immediately. We can't wait until January; we would like to have a free bridge, but we have to be realistic.

"Gov. Smith says that neither state has funds for a free bridge. We might as well accept the fact that it's going to be a toll bridge."

Durkin then replied that Gov. Smith "made no innuendo about the inability of funds" to build the bridge.

He stated, Durkin continued, that the bridge could be completed in 22 months, but in his best judgment it will have to be a toll bridge.

The meeting concluded with the North Hancock group assuming the responsibility of submitting a program to Gov. Smith in the very near future.

William F. Porter of Globe Refractories asked that the group present recommendations to both the West Virginia Road Commission and the Ohio Department of Highways to determine the kind of bridge and its possible location.

Among others attending the meeting were State Sen. John Longsworth of Salem; J. William Shultz, secretary - treasurer of the Ohio Bridge Commission, and Mrs. Letha Astry, a member; Floyd Lower of the Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission; Jack Evans, president of the Hancock Court of Commissioners, and Norman Ferrari, chairman of the SWATS committee.

Book Discussion Set Tuesday For Midland Library

Miss Margaret Cowmeadow of Geneva College will review "Moby Dick" (Melville)) as part of a series of famous book discussions at the Midland Carnegie Free Library Tuesday at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

The series was to have started this week, but was postponed. Dr. Norman Carson, who was to have been the speaker, has been rescheduled for April 23.

Miss Cowmeadow is a native of New Castle and has been a member of the faculty of Geneva College since 1960. She received her undergraduate degree from Slippery Rock State College and a master of literature degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

She has done graduate work at the University of Colorado and Pennsylvania State University. Before entering college teaching, Miss Cowmeadow taught in Shenango High School and in a private school in Hollywood, Calif.

No membership statistics of the Christian Science Church are published.

Drop Reflects Lull In Fighting

GIs Killed In War Last Week Hit 2-Month Low

SAIGON (AP) — The number of American troops killed in combat in Vietnam last week was the lowest in 2½ months, the U.S. Command announced today.

U.S. headquarters said 279 U.S. troops were killed in combat during the week that ended last Saturday at midnight. It was the lowest toll since the start of the Viet Cong's big lunar new year offensive on Jan. 29.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland's headquarters said the drop reflected a lull in the fighting that has been developing for the past month. However, the number of U.S wounded last week totaled 3,190, only 696 less than the week before, and the South Vietnamese command said its dead increased, from 393 the week before to 407 last week.

Enemy casualties also were considerable, although the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands could not agree on the figure. The Americans reported 2,251 enemy killed last week, the South Vietnamese reported 4,012. The reports of enemy dead from the two commands frequently differ, but usually not by that much.

Military spokesman said government troops had been very active, particularly in the Mekong Delta below Saigon, and had engaged the enemy in a number of small skirmishes.

One explanation for the higher number of American wounded was that despite the absence of major ground fighting, the enemy continued harassing attacks by artillery, rockets and mortars. Such attacks usually result in a high number of wounded from flying shrapnel.

In a special casualty report, the U.S. Command said 93 American troops were killed during the 76-day siege of Khe Sanh and 400 wounded troops were evacuated from the Marine combat base just below the demilitarized zone. The announcement did not give the number of wounded who did not have to be evacuated.

Meanwhile, the lull in the ground war continued, with no significant contact reported yet in the biggest allied offensive of the war, the sweep by 100,000 troops looking for an estimated 18,000-20,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in the 11 provinces around Saigon. The operation, named Complete Victory, is now in its fourth day.

"It appears they aren't ready to fight," said a U.S. spokesman. "With their supplies dependent on hand-carrying things, bicycles and sampans, they've probably used what supplies they had stockpiled. They lost over 47,000 men in the Tet offensive. After losses like that, you don't go into action in quite some time.

"Tey apparently have fallen back to regroup, to get replacements. Now is the time to go get them, now that they are hurting. We've got to maintain the pressure on them."

Khe Sanh was quiet for the second day Wednesday as North Vietnamese gunners fired not a single round of artillery, mortar or rockets into the combat base.

Mrs. Anna Jeffrey

LISBON — Mrs. Anna Jeffrey, 84, who resided with her son, Henry Parks of W. Maple St., died Wednesday afternoon at East Liverpool City Hospital.

She had been a patient at the Town and Country Nursing Home in Salineville until being transferred to the hospital a few days ago.

She was born Jan. 11, 1884, in Roane County, W. Va., a daughter of Wes and Caroline Nicholas Collins. She was married twice, first to Harlow Parks, then to Owen Jeffrey. Both are deceased.

Mrs. Jeffrey leaves another son, Harry Jeffrey of Roane County; 18 grandchildren, 40 great - grandchildren and four great - great - grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the Henry Funeral Home, where friends may call from 7 to 9 tonight. The Rev. Paul T. Gerrard of the First Presbyterian Church will officiate. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Mrs. Wallace Cain

Services for Mrs. Eva May Cain, 69, of Norwalk, Calif., a native of East Liverpool and wife of Wallace Cain, were held Tuesday at the Norwalk Mortuary Chapel. The Rev. Sherwood Eddy officiated.

Burial was in Little Lake Cemetery, Norwalk.

Mrs. Cain died April 6. She was born May 15, 1886, and had resided in Norwalk the last four years.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Dora Halstead of Norwalk; a brother, W. H. Crawford of Ohio, and three grandchildren.

Rusk Enters Hospital For Physical Checkup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who has filled one of the government's most demanding jobs for more than seven years, is undergoing a physical examination at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Rusk, 59, entered the hospital Wednesday and the State Department said he may be there for two or three days.

armed racial camps, where there are bigotry, fear and prejudices on both sides; beset with problems of the poor and misunderstanding between the generations, and faced with rising immorality and crime, as a people we are in need of drastic change.

"It would be nice to suggest that all we need to do is put on our Easter finery and worship in faith on Easter morning. However, God, as well as man, will demand something more than that of us if we are to be truly changed.

"The Resurrection came only after the Crucifixion, Easter only after Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. A new birth such as this nation needs can come only if we know the reality of our sin and the need of our confession. Only if great numbers of us show a real willingness to suffer for others—not in war, but in peace and love and forgiveness—can we know reconciliation.

"Only if we find a morality based on this kind of love, will we discover anew our national and individual purpose. In short, it is not difficult to find the Empty Tomb, but he who would discover the Risen Christ, will have to do more than get dressed up."

THE REV. ARTHUR S. Williams, pastor of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church and president of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association, commented:

"As one who longs for and prays for peace and the well being of all mankind, I desire that in this holy season when we commemorate the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, that all would be well with our world. That there would be no war, no hunger, no privation of any kind.

"But, then I remember that it was to be a broken world that Jesus came. He came to a world of war, hunger and privation. He gave Himself to bring healing and wholeness to a world lost in its own selfish pursuits.

"Perhaps, the wars, the violence, the unrest that we see about us is because of His coming. Surely, He has caused great changes to take place in the world He loved and gave himself to and for."

2 Youths Penalized For Setting Of Fires

Two East Liverpool youths, 14 and 16, who admitted setting four fires in vacant homes and a garage in March were penalized Tuesday by Judge Louis Tobin in Juvenile Court at Lisbon.

The parents of each were ordered to pay one-half the damages to be determined by Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne. Restitution is to be at the rate of $10 per week.

The youths are not to associate with each other. The older is to visit the county Mental Health Clinic weekly, accompanied by his parents.

Lenten Thought

"All of us, like Pilate, have Jesus on our hands whether we want Him or not. He forces us to decide whether we will crown Him or crucify Him."

Rev. Paul George,
Boyce Methodist Church
East Liverpool.

Employment Hits Record 75.8 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's employment rose to a record high of 75.8 million in March and unemployment declined but the jobless rate for Negroes continued at more than double the rate for white workers, the Labor Department reports.

The total number of unemployed dipped by 359,000 to 2,929,000 last month, bringing the over-all unemployment rate down from 3.7 to 3.6 per cent of the civilian labor force.

About one-fifth of the total unemployed—615,000—were nonwhites, mostly Negroes, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said Wednesday.

While the jobless rate for Negroes dropped three-tenths of 1 per cent to 6.9 per cent it was still more than twice the white rate of 3.2 per cent, which was down one-tenth of 1 per cent from February.

Total employment rose about 100,000 to hit the new all-time high mark, the Bureau said.

Virtually all the job gains were in trades, government and service businesses.

Weekly earnings for some 45 million workers averaged $104.43, up 38 cents from February and $4.87 above the year earlier. The average for approximately 14 million factory workers was $120.18 per week, up 70 cents from February and $7.74 a week above March of 1967.

46 Bodies Recovered In Sinking Of Ferry

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — Police said today 46 bodies have been recovered from the ferry Wahine and only six persons are still missing.

This sharply reduced earlier police estimates that the dead might reach 100 or more.

The 8,944-ton oceangoing ferry hit a shoal just inside Wellington Harbor Wednesday during one of the worst storms in New Zealand's history and capsized six hours later a mile offshore. A total of 728 persons were aboard, 614 passengers and 114 crew, police said.

28 More To Testify Before Grand Jurors

LISBON — Twenty - eight witnesses were scheduled to testify in seven cases today before the Columbiana County grand jury.

The panel of 12 women and three men heard 23 witnesses in 12 cases yesterday and will conclude deliberations Friday.

Sworn in Tuesday, the jury will report to Judge Joel H. Sharp following an inspection of the County Jail.

Pretty Coed Excels

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The fair sex is moving into another formerly male - dominated field. The top scholar in the well-known College of Fisheries at the University of Washington is a pretty 19-year-od co-ed, Mimi Schmidt of Seattle.

'The Indians Come First,' Spelling Champion Says

Guess who doesn't care much for spelling.

But the 5-foot-2 brown-haired eighth - grader of Eureka Rd. north of Columbiana managed to outlast some rugged competition at Wednesday night's bee against 31 other word experts, including last year's effete champion, Andrew Bevan of East Liverpool.

Asked about her favorite subjects in school, Beverly said she doesn't care for any of them. "What about spelling?" "Don't care much for it," she replied, explaining she became involved in school spelldowns, won them, "then just sort of got carried along."

Beverly said she practices some for the bees, helped occasionally by her brother, Phillip, 10, and her sister, Elaine, 14, but more often by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steiner. "We practiced a little bit more the past three days."

She plays piano and sings in the school chorus, but has a rather casual approach to spelling and other courses—"I get mostly B's."

And how does the nonchalant speller think she'll do at the Canton bee April 28? "I don't think I'll last long," Beverly shrugged.

Bee

Canton finals. The 13-year-old Junior High seventh - grader, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stiffler of 880 Homewood, finished 14th last year.

Plunkett, an eighth - grader, also is 13 and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Plunkett of Wellsville RD 1. Last night marked his second appearance in the bee, but he couldn't recall just how he placed last year. "About in the middle, I guess."

MISS STEINER'S victory over Bevan came suddenly in the 29th round immediately after Crook was eliminated on "crystallize." The trio had battled through 10 rounds after Plunkett and Miss Stiffler had bowed out in the 17th round.

Bevan promptly misspelled "dissension" with a "t" for the last "s". Beverly spelled it correctly and then drew the plaudits of the crowd as she ended the bee with "hypodermic."

There almost was a collective sigh when the five finalists were decided after Dave Detrow of Fairfield School, who will be alternate, stumbled on "intermediate."

Plunkett missed the next word "malady" and Miss Stiffler followed him to the sidelines when she tripped over "moccasin".

In addition to claiming the championship, Columbiana also had the most unfortunate speller when Emily Smith, its other entrant, erred in the first round to become the first of 32 spellers from public and parochial systems to bow out.

HERE'S HOW the other spellers fared and the words they missed:

First round — David Stambaugh of Leetonia, "yearn" Shirley Talbott of East Liverpool, "waif," and Terry Vest of East Liverpool, "trafficking".

Third — Cathy Martin of East Liverpool, "perspiration," and Sherry McCallister of East Liverpool, "mimicked." Fourth — John Densmore of East Liverpool; "knickknack," and Valerie Smith of East Liverpool, "jersey." Both John and Valerie represented the county parochial schools.

Fifth — Lora Lendon of East Liverpool, "physician." Sixth—Stephanie Howard of East Liverpool, "daffodil," and Deborah Serafy of East Liverpool, "triumphal." Eighth — Carol Mathey of Leetonia, "communique."

Ninth — Cathy Crihfield of Lisbon, "dudgeon," and Mary Besse Carter of Southern Local, "disintegration." Eleventh — Deborah Baker of United, "genealogy." Twelfth — Darla McCreary of Fairfield, "foresee."

Thirteenth — Paula McLaughlin of United, "chancellor;" Sally Coppock of United, "granule," and Laurie Cameron of Lisbon, "erroneous."

Carl Evans, curriculum coordinator in Salem schools, was the pronouncer. Cornell Monda, psychologist in Lisbon schools; Carl F. Pelini, assistant superintendent of East Liverpool schools, and Paul Young, Lisbon correspondent of the Review and The Salem News were judges.

Ray Dean, editor of the News, presided and presented trophies to the five finalists on behalf of The Review and The News, co-sponsors of the event.

armed racial camps, where there are bigotry, fear and prejudices on both sides; beset with problems of the poor and misunderstanding between the generations, and faced with rising immorality and crime, as a people we are in need of drastic change.

"It would be nice to suggest that all we need to do is put on our Easter finery and worship in faith on Easter morning. However, God, as well as man, will demand something more than that of us if we are to be truly changed.

"The Resurrection came only after the Crucifixion, Easter only after Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. A new birth such as this nation needs can come only if we know the reality of our sin and the need of our confession. Only if great numbers of us show a real willingness to suffer for others—not in war, but in peace and love and forgiveness—can we know reconciliation.

"Only if we find a morality based on this kind of love, will we discover anew our national and individual purpose. In short, it is not difficult to find the Empty Tomb, but he who would discover the Risen Christ, will have to do more than get dressed up."

THE REV. ARTHUR S. Williams, pastor of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church and president of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association, commented:

"As one who longs for and prays for peace and the well being of all mankind, I desire that in this holy season when we commemorate the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, that all would be well with our world. That there would be no war, no hunger, no privation of any kind.

"But, then I remember that it was to be a broken world that Jesus came. He came to a world of war, hunger and privation. He gave Himself to bring healing and wholeness to a world lost in its own selfish pursuits.

"Perhaps, the wars, the violence, the unrest that we see about us is because of His coming. Surely, He has caused great changes to take place in the world He loved and gave himself to and for."

2 Youths Penalized For Setting Of Fires

Two East Liverpool youths, 14 and 16, who admitted setting four fires in vacant homes and a garage in March were penalized Tuesday by Judge Louis Tobin in Juvenile Court at Lisbon.

The parents of each were ordered to pay one-half the damages to be determined by Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne. Restitution is to be at the rate of $10 per week.

The youths are not to associate with each other. The older is to visit the county Mental Health Clinic weekly, accompanied by his parents.

Lenten Thought

"All of us, like Pilate, have Jesus on our hands whether we want Him or not. He forces us to decide whether we will crown Him or crucify Him."

Rev. Paul George, Boyce Methodist Church East Liverpool.

Employment Hits Record 75.8 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's employment rose to a record high of 75.8 million in March and unemployment declined but the jobless rate for Negroes continued at more than double the rate for white workers, the Labor Department reports.

The total number of unemployed dipped by 359,000 to 2,929,000 last month, bringing the over-all unemployment rate down from 3.7 to 3.6 per cent of the civilian labor force.

About one-fifth of the total unemployed—615,000—were nonwhites, mostly Negroes, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said Wednesday.

While the jobless rate for Negroes dropped three-tenths of 1 per cent to 6.9 per cent it was still more than twice the white rate of 3.2 per cent, which was down one-tenth of 1 per cent from February.

Total employment rose about 100,000 to hit the new all-time high mark, the Bureau said.

Virtually all the job gains were in trades, government and service businesses.

Weekly earnings for some 45 million workers averaged $104.43, up 38 cents from February and $4.87 above the year earlier. The average for approximately 14 million factory workers was $120.18 per week, up 70 cents from February and $7.74 a week above March of 1967.

46 Bodies Recovered In Sinking Of Ferry

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — Police said today 46 bodies have been recovered from the ferry Wahine and only six persons are still missing.

This sharply reduced earlier police estimates that the dead might reach 100 or more.

The 8,944-ton oceangoing ferry hit a shoal just inside Wellington Harbor Wednesday during one of the worst storms in New Zealand's history and capsized six hours later a mile offshore. A total of 728 persons were aboard, 614 passengers and 114 crew, police said.

28 More To Testify Before Grand Jurors

LISBON — Twenty - eight witnesses were scheduled to testify in seven cases today before the Columbiana County grand jury.

The panel of 12 women and three men heard 23 witnesses in 12 cases yesterday and will conclude deliberations Friday.

Sworn in Tuesday, the jury will report to Judge Joel H. Sharp following an inspection of the County Jail.

Pretty Coed Excels

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The fair sex is moving into another formerly male - dominated field. The top scholar in the well-known College of Fisheries at the University of Washington is a pretty 19-year-od co-ed, Mimi Schmidt of Seattle.

'The Indians Come First,' Spelling Champion Says

Guess who doesn't care much for spelling.

But the 5-foot-2 brown-haired eighth - grader of Eureka Rd. north of Columbiana managed to outlast some rugged competition at Wednesday night's bee against 31 other word experts, including last year's effete champion, Andrew Bevan of East Liverpool.

Asked about her favorite subjects in school, Beverly said she doesn't care for any of them. "What about spelling?" "Don't care much for it," she replied, explaining she became involved in school spelldowns, won them, "then just sort of got carried along."

Beverly said she practices some for the bees, helped occasionally by her brother, Phillip, 10, and her sister, Elaine, 14, but more often by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steiner. "We practiced a little bit more the past three days."

She plays piano and sings in the school chorus, but has a rather casual approach to spelling and other courses—"I get mostly B's."

And how does the nonchalant speller think she'll do at the Canton bee April 26? "I don't think I'll last long," Beverly shrugged.

Clutching her champ's trophy, she headed for her waiting mother and dad, showing more excitement about seeing the Indians play again this summer than possibly becoming the regional spelling winner.

Canton finals. The 13-year-old Junior High seventh - grader, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stiffler of 880 Homewood, finished 14th last year.

Plunkett, an eighth - grader, also is 13 and the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Plunkett of Wellsville RD 1. Last night marked his second appearance in the bee, but he couldn't recall just how he placed last year. "About in the middle, I guess."

MISS STEINER'S victory over Bevan came suddenly in the 28th round immediately after Crook was eliminated on "crystallize." The trio had battled through 10 rounds after Plunkett and Miss Stiffler had bowed out in the 17th round.

Bevan promptly misspelled "dissension" with a "t" for the last "s". Beverly spelled it correctly and then drew the plaudits of the crowd as she ended the bee with "hypodermic."

There almost was a collective sigh when the five finalists were decided after Dave Detrow of Fairfield School, who will be alternate, stumbled on "intermediate."

Plunkett missed the next word "malady" and Miss Stiffler followed him to the sidelines when she tripped over "moccasin".

In addition to claiming the championship, Columbiana also had the most unfortunate speller when Emily Smith, its other entrant, erred in the first round to become the first of 32 spellers from public and parochial systems to bow out.

HERE'S HOW the other spellers fared and the words they missed:

First round — David Stambaugh of Leetonia, "yearn" Shirley Talbott of East Liverpool, "waif," and Terry Vest of East Liverpool, "trafficking".

Third — Cathy Martin of East Liverpool, "perspiration," and Sherry McCallister of East Liverpool, "mimicked." Fourth — John Densmore of East Liverpool; "knickknack," and Valerie Smith of East Liverpool, "jersey." Both John and Valerie represented the county parochial schools.

Fifth — Lora Lendon of East Liverpool, "physician." Sixth—Stephanie Howard of East Liverpool, "daffodil," and Deborah Serafy of East Liverpool, "triumphal." Eighth — Carol Mathey of Leetonia, "communique."

Ninth — Cathy Crihfield of Lisbon, "dudgeon," and Mary Besse Carter of Southern Local, "disintegration." Eleventh — Deborah Baker of United, "genealogy." Twelfth — Darla McCreary of Fairfield, "foresee."

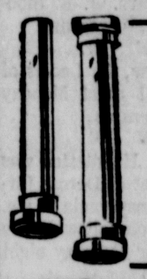

Thirteenth — Paula McLaughlin of United, "chancellor;" Sally Coppock of United, "granule," and Laurie Cameron of Lisbon, "erroneous."

Carl Evans, curriculum coordinator in Salem schools, was the pronouncer. Cornell Monda, psychologist in Lisbon schools; Carl F. Pelini, assistant superintendent of East Liverpool schools, and Paul Young, Lisbon correspondent of the Review and The Salem News were judges.

Ray Dean, editor of the News, presided and presented trophies to the five finalists on behalf of The Review and The News, co-sponsors of the event.

Carol Lee Bunfill Weds In Wellsville Ceremonies

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evert E. Bunfill of 303 Wells Ave., Wellsville. Her sister is Mrs. Robert D. Smith of East Liverpool RD.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Huston and the late John E. (Jack) Huston of 149 W. North Ave., East Palestine.

The Rev. Robert H. Schondelmayer officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Music was provided by Ralph Falconer, church organist and the church choir sang "The 23rd Psalm." Miss Shirley Andrews sang "With This Ring" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service.

Her gown featured a watteau train of matching lace which extended into a chapel train banded by the crepe. Her headpiece was a flower cluster of petals formed in tulle with lace accents and a bouffant veil of French silk illusion.

The bride carried a blue lace handkerchief that was carried by her sisters when they were married. Her flowers were daisy pompons over a Bible. She observed the wedding traditions.

Mrs. Connie DeFilippo, matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of turquoise with matching headpiece. Ray Rohm of East Liverpool was best man.

Sharon Louise Smith, niece of the bride, and Lana Kay Mellington, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They wore short white lace dresses with empire bodice and white leotards with daisy headbands. Ushers were Jay Pancake and James Fitzsimmons.

Mrs. Bunfill was attired in a beige dress with brown accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue, pink and orchid paisley print dress with matching accessories. She also wore a yellow rosebud corsage.

MRS. JOHN HUSTON
Has Double-Ring Rites.

—:—

A RECEPTION followed in the church social rooms. A three-tier cake topped with a cross, the symbol of "Marriage in Christ" and baked by the bride's mother, centered the table. Daisies and turquoise net decorated the table. Aides were members of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the church and Susan Geer and Debbie Lanam.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turner of Lisbon RD 1, grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wile of East Palestine, grandparents of the bridegroom, were among those attending the nuptials.

The bride was graduated from Wellsville High School in 1961 and from the Hannah E. Mullin School of Practical Nursing at Salem. In 1963 she took a post-graduate course at the Eye and Ear Infirmary of Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. She presently is employed at the Extended Care Center in East Liverpool.

Her husband is a graduate of New Waterford High School and spent eight years in the Air Force. He is employed at the A & P meat processing plant in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mouse of Wellsville RD 1 announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Bonnie Mouse, to Lance Cpl. Gary C. Cochran, son of Mrs. Martha Cochran of McKee Ave. and Hobert Cochran of McKee Ave.

The bride - to - be attended Southern Local High School and is employed as a clerk in Bloor's Pharmacy here.

Her fiance attended East Liverpool High School and recently completed a tour of duty in Vietnam. He now is stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The open church wedding will take place Saturday at 5 p.m. at the Assembly of God Church here.

Carol Lee Bunfill Weds In Wellsville Ceremonies

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evert E. Bunfill of 303 Wells Ave., Wellsville. Her sister is Mrs. Robert D. Smith of East Liverpool RD.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Huston and the late John E. (Jack) Huston of 149 W. North Ave., East Palestine.

The Rev. Robert H. Schondelmayer officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Music was provided by Ralph Falconer, church organist and the church choir sang "The 23rd Psalm." Miss Shirley Andrews sang "With This Ring" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service.

Her gown featured a watteau train of matching lace which extended into a chapel train banded by the crepe. Her headpiece was a flower cluster of petals formed in tulle with lace accents and a bouffant veil of French silk illusion.

The bride carried a blue lace handkerchief that was carried by her sisters when they were married. Her flowers were daisy pompons over a Bible. She observed the wedding traditions.

Mrs. Connie DeFilippo, matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of turquoise with matching headpiece. Ray Rohm of East Liverpool was best man.

Sharon Louise Smith, niece of the bride, and Lana Kay Mellington, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They wore short white lace dresses with empire bodice and white leotards with daisy headbands. Ushers were Jay Pancake and James Fitzsimmons.

Mrs. Bunfill was attired in a beige dress with brown accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue, pink and orchid paisley print dress with matching accessories. She also wore a yellow rosebud corsage.

MRS. JOHN HUSTON
Has Double-Ring Rites.

—:—

A RECEPTION followed in the church social rooms. A three-tier cake topped with a cross, the symbol of "Marriage in Christ" and baked by the bride's mother, centered the table. Daisies and turquoise net decorated the table. Aides were members of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the church and Susan Geer and Debbie Lanam.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turner of Lisbon RD 1, grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wile of East Palestine, grandparents of the bridegroom, were among those attending the nuptials.

The bride was graduated from Wellsville High School in 1961 and from the Hannah E. Mullin School of Practical Nursing at Salem. In 1963 she took a post-graduate course at the Eye and Ear Infirmary of Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. She presently is employed at the Extended Care Center in East Liverpool.

Her husband is a graduate of New Waterford High School and spent eight years in the Air Force. He is employed at the A & P meat processing plant in Salem.

Alliance Pastor To Speak At District Church Event

The Rev. Leonard F. Solt, minister of the Union Avenue Methodist Church of Alliance, will be the speaker at the spring meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church in the Steubenville District April 19 at the Calvary Church of Steubenville.

His topic will be "Poverty, Welfare, and the Problems of Inner City Life." Rev. Solt, his wife and children, Lynda and Lenny, spent the summer of 1967 working in the inner city of Cleveland.

Before entering the ministry, he was the district sales representative for a Cleveland corporation. He was graduated in 1953 from Ashland College and received a master's degree in American History in 1954 from Oberlin College. Following his graduation in 1958 from the Oberlin Graduate School of Theology, Rev. Solt served pastorates in Brunswick, Bridgeport and Doylestown.

Rev. Solt is an associate chairman of the conference board of Christian Social Concerns, a member of the Board of Missions and of the committee of higher education.

Mrs. Francis H. Lang, district president, will preside, when officers will be elected, changes reviewed in the Women's Society, Gold Key awards made to deserving societies, School of Christian Mission and installation.

Registration will be held from 9 until 9:30 a.m. A nursery will be provided for preschool children. Reservations must be made for the luncheon by Friday. They may be sent to Mrs. Burl B. Miller of 2211 Sunset Blvd., Steubenville.

Eggs and rabbits heralded the spring season centuries before the first Easter baskets was filled, the National Geographic Society says. Persians, Phoenicians, Greeks and Romans all associated eggs with the waking earth. The Chaldeans of ancient Babylonia chose the rabbit as a spring fertility symbol.

Alliance Pastor To Speak At District Church Event

The Rev. Leonard F. Solt, minister of the Union Avenue Methodist Church of Alliance, will be the speaker at the spring meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church in the Steubenville District April 19 at the Calvary Church of Steubenville.

His topic will be "Poverty, Welfare, and the Problems of Inner City Life." Rev. Solt, his wife and children, Lynda and Lenny, spent the summer of 1966 working in the inner city of Cleveland.

Before entering the ministry, he was the district sales representative for a Cleveland corporation. He was graduated in 1953 from Ashland College and received a master's degree in American History in 1954 from Oberlin College. Following his graduation in 1958 from the Oberlin Graduate School of Theology, Rev. Solt served pastorates in Brunswick, Bridgeport and Doylestown.

Rev. Solt is an associate chairman of the conference board of Christian Social Concerns, a member of the Board of Missions and of the committee of higher education.

Mrs. Francis H. Lang, district president, will preside, when officers will be elected, changes reviewed in the Women's Society, Gold Key awards made to deserving societies, School of Christian Mission and installation.

Registration will be held from 9 until 9:30 a.m. A nursery will be provided for preschool children. Reservations must be made for the luncheon by Friday. They may be sent to Mrs. Burl B. Miller of 2211 Sunset Blvd., Steubenville.

Eggs and rabbits heralded the spring season centuries before the first Easter baskets was filled, the National Geographic Society says. Persians, Phoenicians, Greeks and Romans all associated eggs with the waking earth. The Chaldeans of ancient Babylonia chose the rabbit as a spring fertility symbol.

Toll Raised To 39 In U.S. Riots

5 Killed In Second Night Of Kansas City Violence

By The Associated Press

Five Negroes died during a second night of racial violence in Kansas City but elsewhere there were only scattered and sporadic incidents as the nation's troubled cities edged back toward normalcy.

The deaths raised to 39 the national total in the wave of rioting and disorders that followed the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. one week ago today.

All of the Kansas City victims were shot to death. Some apparently were caught in the crossfire that flared at times between snipers and police supported by National Guardsmen.

More than 75 fires of incendiary origin were reported.

At least 20 persons, including two guardsmen, were injured, and police and guard troops battled snipers shooting from rooftop vantage points and from moving cars. Sixty persons were arrested.

In Newark city officials imposed a limited curfew for the early morning hours in a small section of the city. There were scattered reports of looting but otherwise the city remained calm.

The officials said the midnight to 6 a.m. curfew was ordered after several hundred Negro youths gathered on blocks near where a row of stores had gone up in flames earlier in the evening.

A total of 47,000 National Guardsmen remained committed to riot control duty in 15 states and the District of Columbia. There were also 20,000 federal troops in Washington, Chicago and Baltimore.

The nation's capital passed its first business day without major incident. It was expected the 14,000 troops would be released soon from their patrol duties which already have been reduced.

Mayor Walter E. Washington said the curfew would be further eased if the peace continues. Three days of violence beginning last Thursday took seven lives and left more than 1,000 persons injured.

Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley lifted the curfew for minors which was set Saturday and said the 11,900 federal troops and guardsmen may begin withdrawing from the city soon.

The decision, he said, will be made by "the superintendent of police and the military. I don't think we should put any time limit on it." Eleven persons were killed and some 500 injured during the two days of violence.

A dusk to dawn curfew was lifted in Pittsburgh but 4,473 guardsmen remained in the city with no immediate indication of when they would be withdrawn.

Authorities said there were 35 arrests and 41 fires reported during the day bringing the totals to 1,265 arrests and 515 fires since the trouble started.

An average person can smell 2,000 different odors. Trained sniffers differentiate some 4,000 scents.

Things That Make Life Worth Living

New Hopes In The Spring

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things that make life worth living:

Children skipping rope to a chant their grandmothers knew when young. The healing of a wound and the falling off of an ugly scab. New hopes in a new spring. A line of daffodils making a yellow bonfire along a green hedge.

The sound of gospel singing in a weathered rural church. Old ladies with fat arms leaning on pillows in tenement windows to get a breath of April air and see what's stirring on the streets below. Colts frolicking before a wind rippling across an emerald pasture. The twilight sound of bells, ringing from far away.

Tossing a stone into a small lake at dusk and wondering if the spreading ripples will undulate forever. Consoling a sobbing baby after it falls down and hurts itself, or gets soapsuds in its eyes while taking a bath. Finding the paycheck unexpectedly larger by a few dollars, and deciding that maybe the boss isn't such a forgetful ogre after all.

Painting an old boat and planning on all the fish you'll catch from it come summer. The delirious ecstasy of taking a hot shower after a day-long hike through the woods.

The red thrill of the first strawberries of the season upon the breakfast plate. Hitting a 200-yard drive over a golf course water hazard, or seeing Mickey Mantle or Willie Mays jog around the base paths after lofting a long ball into the stands. Telling ghost stories to Boy Scouts making their first overnight hike. Putting in a garden and counting how many long weeks it will be until the tomatoes ripen, God and the bugs being willing.

Assuring a middle-aged wife you couldn't possibly love her any more, even if she dieted off 10 pounds instead of five. Listening to the kids laugh as they go through an old family album and see how funny Dad and Mom looked when they were teen-agers.

Picking up a forgotten poetry anthology and finding the words now have a deeper, richer meaning to you than they did in high school or college. Watching robins collect worms for their young after a rain.

Winning the one-legged hopping race at the annual PTA picnic. Discussing gravely with two precocious sales ladies from the Girl Scouts whether your family needs two or three boxes of cookies, price no object. Calling a family debate on how the budget should be stretched this year—to buy a new car you can't afford, or a color television set the kids say they can't do without.

Sitting alone on the front porch in the evening, hearing a whippoorwill's timeless plaint, remembering the past, wondering what the bewildering times ahead will bring.

Cases Increase In Lisbon Court

LISBON — Cases pending in Columbiana County's two courts of Common Pleas increased from 880 to 918 during March.

Fifty - one cases were disposed of last month, but 89 new cases were filed during the period. Forty of the new cases are divorce or alimony actions.

An analysis of the dispositions shows 17 trials to court, four jury trials, seven cognovit and default judgments and 23 cases settled or dismissed.

Five county cases are pending before Seventh District Court of Appeals.

Labor Editor, Former Sports Editor Claimed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Irven Scheibeck, labor editor of the Columbus Dispatch and a former sports writer for the newspaper, died Wednesday of a heart ailment. He was 63.

He was in the sports department from 1923-40 and then left and joined the old International News Service. He also worked elsewhere before rejoining the Dispatch in 1953 as labor editor and copy reader.

Survivors include the widow, Ann; a son, Robert of Columbus, and a stepson and stepdaughter.

Tailgate Swings, Truck Damaged

A truck was damaged and a utility pole was knocked down when a tailgate on another truck broke loose and swung around into oncoming traffic Wednesday afternoon, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reports.

A dump truck, operated by Edward J. Aliulis, 46, of RD 2, was eastbound on the Smiths Ferry - Calcutta Rd. at 12:50 p. m. when the tailgate from a westbound dump truck driven by Leonard D. Miller, 45, of Irish Ridge Rd., swung into the cab, officers said.

The tailgate was then propelled off the north side of the road, where it struck a wire fence and the utility pole.

Two Motorists Fined By Salineville Mayor

SALINEVILLE — Two drivers were fined on traffic charges by Mayor Dwayne Felton at hearings Tuesday night.

Joyce A. Simms, 18, of 1035 Center St., Wellsville, was fined $20 and costs for reckless operation. She pleaded no contest.

Nancy Boals, 20, of Salineville was fined $5 and costs after she pleaded guilty to failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Council OK's Salary Boost At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Council Wednesday night authorized a salary increase for the street foreman, and heard two Ohio Power Co. representatives discuss upgrading of the street lighting system.

Council approved a pay boost for Pete Growall, street foreman, providing $400 a month, compared to the previous $365 a month salary.

Charles Heller, district manager for the power firm, and Peter Todd, commercial representative, explained how new lighting could be provided in the outlying area near Foundry Hill. They also pointed out possible lighting improvements within the village.

In other business, Gillis Earl, chairman of the street and light committee, reported drainage tile under an alley at the east end of the village had been repaired.

Allen Allmon, chairman of the health and sanitation committee, said the access route to the community dump is being repaired.

Council discussed removing the molasses spilled when a railroad car was derailed several weeks ago near Main St. and the blinker lights to be installed in front of the grade school by the Ohio Department of Highways.

Fire Chief Tony Brandonisio told Council a new fire siren is needed.

Mayor Dwayne Felton read a letter he had received from a group of teen-agers requesting a summer recreation program be organized.

2 From Key Club Speak At Chester Kiwanis Meeting

Richard Bryer and Steve Logston, Key Club members from Oak Glen High School, spoke at the meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

They described highlights of a West Virginia district convention of Key Clubs April 5-6 at Charleston and exhibited a plaque for "100 per cent participation" in the first division.

Dr. Howard Matthews read a letter from Grafton, W. Va., where the International Mothers Day Shrine is located. The church there and the shrine are in the process of being restored. The club authorized a donation to assist in the project.

A donation also was made to the Cancer Fund.

E. R. Chandler read a letter from W. Pat Jennings, clerk in the House of Representatives at Washington, which was enclosed with a U.S. flag that had been flown over the House wing of the Capitol April 2. The flag was raised April 5 at the First St. Memorial Park, Chester, Chandler said.

Dr. Matthews and Robert Cooley will attend a Key Club meeting April 17.

The next meeting will be Tuesday at 6 in City Hall.

'Relaxed' Housecleaning

DEAR FOLKS: It does my heart real good to get a letter of love from you, but I rarely print them even though they do keep me going. I'm always afraid you all would think I'd made them up.

Heloise

But I want to share a letter with you this once because you sent so many more like it.

"I read your column in the paper entitled, 'Don't Fall for Heavy Housecleaning,' and I just had to write this note to you. Did that article hit home!

"I'm the housewife who is forever dusting and scrubbing as though our house were going to be inspected. My meticulous habits even carry over to the children who always have to look like they are about to be entered in a fashion contest.

"The article really hit home because I just got out of the hospital where I had been for a month with pneumonia. Now that I have recovered from that, the doctor has me on tranquilizers.

"Believe me, you did more for me than a month's supply of those pills. I truly believe I will take my housecleaning chores at a more relaxed pace — because 'Heloise said so!' "

"Tomorrow is another day and perhaps my two girls and I will enjoy it more because I won't be so upset if things get a little out of kilter and everything isn't just right.

"Thank you!"

MRS. A. J. FUNK.

Folks, we had so many responses to that column, I just had to share one letter with you.

All I said was, "If you want an EXCUSE not to do it, say 'Heloise said so,' and don't knock yourself into a tizzy or have a breakdown trying to have everything perfect. Nobody else does..."

So don't work yourself to death, gals, and keep in mind that THE SECOND WIFE ALWAYS HAS A MAID.

We sure hope you're all well now, Mrs. Funk. A great big God bless you.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My family loves avocados, so I buy several each week. But sometimes I only use half of one in a small salad and have to store the other half in the hydrator of my refrigerator.

I have learned if I spread a coating of oleo over the cut edges that it doesn't turn dark if I wait several days to use it.

Result: No waste since I don't have to trim off the dark rim of that delicious avocado.

D. S. P.

It works! Thanks, pal.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Each spring I shorten my son's blue jeans with the worn knees to make summer shorts.

At the same time, I use the back of the leg bottom to make two very large patches, large enough to cover the whole seat of the jeans.

This double seat will see the shorts through the entire summer. By doing it all at one time, it saves having to spend the summer dragging out and putting up the machine to patch each pair as the seat wears through.

CHARLOTTE MINNETTE.

DEAR HELOISE: When planting small flower or vegetable seeds, I put them into a salt shaker. Then I simply shake them into the furrow as thick or as sparsely as I choose.

For larger seeds, I use a discarded seasoning jar (celery or onion salt, etc.).

MRS. J. OTTEN.

DEAR HELOISE: I happen to have a small turkey roaster with an oval domed top and use it to bake the cuttest egg-shaped cake for Easter.

I use enough cake mix to almost fill the roaster top and the handle fits between the wires of the rack of my oven when I put it in.

When I dump it out of the pan, I leave the cake upside down and it looks like half of a large egg.

If you don't have that kind of pan, you could use a ham can. They come in all sizes, too.

HELOISE.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

'Relaxed' Housecleaning

DEAR FOLKS: It does my heart real good to get a letter of love from you, but I rarely print them even though they do keep me going. I'm always afraid you all would think I'd made them up.

Heloise

But I want to share a letter with you this once because you sent so many more like it.

"I read your column in the paper entitled, 'Don't Fall for Heavy Housecleaning,' and I just had to write this note to you. Did that article hit home!

"I'm the housewife who is forever dusting and scrubbing as though our house were going to be inspected. My meticulous habits even carry over to the children who always have to look like they are about to be entered in a fashion contest.

"The article really hit home because I just got out of the hospital where I had been for a month with pneumonia. Now that I have recovered from that, the doctor has me on tranquilizers.

"Believe me, you did more for me than a month's supply of those pills. I truly believe I will take my housecleaning chores at a more relaxed pace — because 'Heloise said so!'"

"Tomorrow is another day and perhaps my two girls and I will enjoy it more because I won't be so upset if things get a little out of kilter and everything isn't just right.

"Thank you!"

MRS. A. J. FUNK.

Folks, we had so many responses to that column, I just had to share one letter with you.

All I said was, "If you want an EXCUSE not to do it, say 'Heloise said so,' and don't knock yourself into a tizzy or have a breakdown trying to have everything perfect. Nobody else does..."

So don't work yourself to death, gals, and keep in mind that THE SECOND WIFE ALWAYS HAS A MAID.

We sure hope you're all well now, Mrs. Funk. A great big God bless you.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My family loves avocados, so I buy several each week. But sometimes I only use half of one in a small salad and have to store the other half in the hydrator of my refrigerator.

I have learned if I spread a coating of oleo over the cut edges that it doesn't turn dark if I wait several days to use it.

Result: No waste since I don't have to trim off the dark rim of that delicious avocado.

D. S. P.

It works! Thanks, pal.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Each spring I shorten my son's blue jeans with the worn knees to make summer shorts.

At the same time, I use the back of the leg bottom to make two very large patches, large enough to cover the whole seat of the jeans.

This double seat will see the shorts through the entire summer. By doing it all at one time, it saves having to spend the summer dragging out and putting up the machine to patch each pair as the seat wears through.

CHARLOTTE MINNETTE.

DEAR HELOISE: When planting small flower or vegetable seeds, I put them into a salt shaker. Then I simply shake them into the furrow as thick or as sparsely as I choose.

For larger seeds, I use a discarded seasoning jar (celery or onion salt, etc.).

MRS. J. OTTEN.

DEAR HELOISE: I happen to have a small turkey roaster with an oval domed top and use it to bake the cuttest egg-shaped cake for Easter.

I use enough cake mix to almost fill the roaster top and the handle fits between the wires of the rack of my oven when I put it in.

When I dump it out of the pan, I leave the cake upside down and it looks like half of a large egg.

If you don't have that kind of pan, you could use a ham can. They come in all sizes, too.

HELOISE.

Under Life Imprisonment

Copestick Parole Study Could Come In 10 Years

Charles Copestick, 26, former East Liverpool resident whose death sentence was reduced to life imprisonment Tuesday, will be eligible for consideration for parole in 10 years.

Gov. James A. Rhodes commuted the sentence from murder first degree as declared by Columbiana County Common Pleas Court in the September 1966 term to murder first degree with mercy. Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey received the warrant Wednesday.

Copestick was scheduled to die in the electric chair April 26 for the pistol slaying of his estranged and pregnant wife, Rebecca Mae, 19, on June 19, 1966, as they sat in a car near his home, 871 Valley Ave.

During the trial in November 1966, Copestick claimed the shooting was an accident. The victim was shot five times in the head and died before reaching the hospital. The jury did not recommend mercy, making the death sentence mandatory.

Electrocution dates were postponed on three occasions as Copestick's counsel, Donald D. Shay and G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, appealed through the courts. The Seventh District Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the trial court and the Ohio Supreme Court twice refused to consider the case.

Counsel then applied to the Ohio Adult Parole Authority for a hearing on an application for commutation of the death sentence imposed by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court. The authority conducted a hearing March 1.

Gov. Rhodes commutation warrant noted that the six members of the parole authority at the hearing recommended commutation of the sentence.

The prisoner's attorneys visited him several times while he was in "Death Row" at Ohio Penitentiary and report he has developed considerable talent for freehand drawing.

Camp Fire Girl News

Easter eggs were colored by Blue Bird Group 17 of the Camp Fire Girls Monday afternoon at Calcutta School under supervision of the leader, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, and assistant leader, Mrs. Mary Mellington, who provided the eggs.

The eggs were placed in baskets and taken to Geraldine's Rest Home, where the group visited with the residents and sang songs.

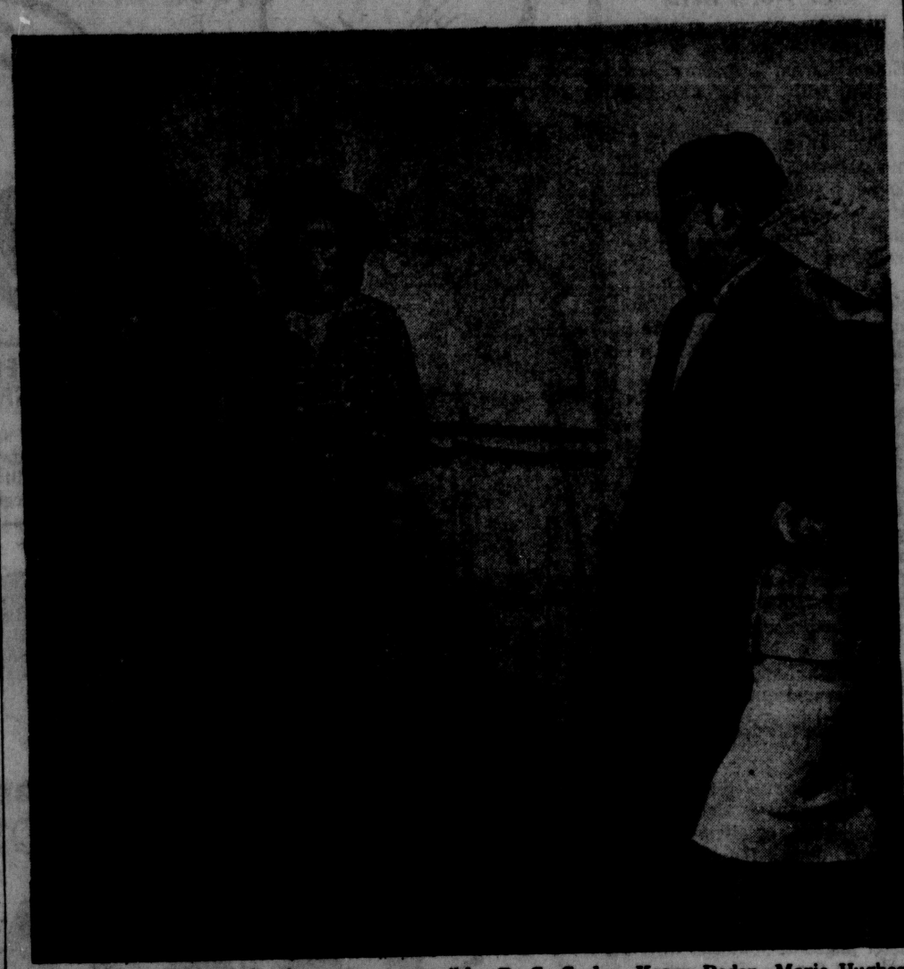

Making the trip were Sharon Hoppel, Debbie Mellington, Terry Triguba, Deborah Wilson, Kim Dawson, Kathy Coons and Mary Beth Jones.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Two Israeli students are being held for selling 20 bottles of "Holy Land air" to tourists for 20 cents a bottle. They gave the proceeds to the Committee for the Prevention of Air Pollution.

April 19 By Junior Class

Play Set At South Side

The Junior Class of South Side High School at Hookstown will present a comedy, "Hillbilly Weddin'," April 19 at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

The play concerns the antics of a father who attempts to "marry off" six daughters as soon as possible. R. G. Cooling, class sponsor, is the director.

Alvin Whitehill has the lead role as "Paw Belsnickle." Sandy Rardin plays his wife.

The cast also includes Suzie Goodlin, Beverly Illig, Martha Molnar, Patty Moore, Karen Peden, Marie Hughes, Hencil Kearns, Dan Dawson, Bill Powell, Mary Dawson, Jason Allison, Louis McCarrell, Diane Patton, Rick Ford, Jackie Fox and Dave Elliot.

Tickets will be on sale at the door or may be obtained from the class members.

Sentence Due On 4 Charges

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today deferred until Friday imposition of sentence on a young motorist who pleaded guilty to four traffic charges.

Robert Donahue of Dresden Ave. is accused of operating an auto without a driver's license, reckless driving, using a "defective or inadequate muffler"" on his auto and failing to halt when signalled by the red light and siren of a police cruiser.

Donahue was taken into custody Wednesday night on the charges filed by Patrolman Charles Coen after he pursued the defendant Tuesday night about 10:45. The officer said he attempted to halt Donahue on E. 4th St., but the motorist continued. Coen said he "chased him all over West End."

Questioned by the judge, Donahue said he became frightened and fled because he is on parole from the Ohio State Reformatory. The judge said he will impose sentence tomorrow after talking with Donahue's parole officer.

"I don't want to see you go back to the reformatory and I don't want you to lose your job" in a service station, the court said.

Meanwhile, Raymond L. Pieri of New Galilee, Pa., forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of operating an auto with defective brakes. He was cited April 4 on State Route 170 by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

2 Drivers Forfeit $69 On 19 Parking Tickets

Two motorists forfeited appearance bonds totaling $69 today in Municipal Court on "Meter Maid" charges they ignored 19 old parking tickets.

Melvin Clark of 261 Center St., accused of failing to pay the penalty for 10 citations, forfeited a $35.50 bond. Ronald Beckwith of 309 W. 9th St., charged with ignoring nine tickets, forfeited $33.50.

Both affidavits were signed by "Meter Maid" Juanita Stoffel.

Bid Opening Planned Beaver Road Project

Rep. Robert O. Davis of the 13th Legislative District has announced the Pennsylvania Department of Highways will open bids May 10 for Section 4 of the Beaver Valley Expressway in Center and Potter Townships.

The length of the project will be 2.73 miles from the south end of the new Beaver Valley Expressway Bridge over the Ohio River to the intersection of Legislative Route 04043 and Township Road 481.

The road will consist of two ribbons of reinforced cement concrete each 24 feet wide with a medial strip 44 feet wide, one reinforced concrete box and two bridges with alternate superstructures and drainage.

New Officers Are Named By Newell Junior Women

Mrs. Marge Beckner was elected president when the Newell Junior Woman's Club met Wednesday in the IOOF Hall.

Others named were Mrs. Edna LaNeve, vice president; Mrs. Sandy Stine, recording secretary; Mrs. Joann Gessford, corresponding secretary, and Joyce Krieder, treasurer.

A delegation of 10 club members and 3 Juniorettes will attend the West Virginia convention of Federated Junior Women's Clubs May 17-18 at Huntington.

A thank - you letter was read from the East Liverpool Junior Woman's Club for a donation to the film, "One Quarter of a Million Teen-agers," on venereal disease.

June 1 was set as the date for an installation dinner and dance.

Mrs. LaNeve reported on progress on the proposed Newell post office.

A discussion was held concerning whether or not to send a girl to Girls State. A final decision was delayed.

The club will send a boy and girl to a conservation camp at Tomlinson Run State Park.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with Easter baskets. Hostesses were Mrs. Kiger, Miss Marilyn Gibas and Mrs. Phyllis Jividen.

The next meeting will be April 23 at 8 p.m. at the American Legion.

Services Set Tonight At Industry Church

Holy Thursday services tonight at the Ohio View Lutheran Church in Industry will include communion service at 8:15, with members of the Midland First Baptist Church guests.

The theme is "It is Finished," with the Rev. Oscar Arnal in charge. A coffee hour will follow.

The liturgy will be presented by the church's worship committee on Good Friday. The topic will be "I Was There — Good Friday."

Under Life Imprisonment

Copestick Parole Study Could Come In 10 Years

Charles Copestick, 26, former East Liverpool resident whose death sentence was reduced to life imprisonment Tuesday, will be eligible for consideration for parole in 10 years.

Gov. James A. Rhodes commuted the sentence from murder first degree as declared by Columbiana County Common Pleas Court in the September 1966 term to murder first degree with mercy. Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey received the warrant Wednesday.

Copestick was scheduled to die in the electric chair April 26 for the pistol slaying of his estranged and pregnant wife, Rebecca Mae, 19, on June 19, 1966, as they sat in a car near his home, 871 Valley Ave.

During the trial in November 1966, Copestick claimed the shooting was an accident. The victim was shot five times in the head and died before reaching the hospital. The jury did not recommend mercy, making the death sentence mandatory.

Electrocution dates were postponed on three occasions as Copestick's counsel, Donald D. Shay and G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, appealed through the courts. The Seventh District Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the trial court and the Ohio Supreme Court twice refused to consider the case.

Counsel then applied to the Ohio Adult Parole Authority for a hearing on an application for commutation of the death sentence imposed by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court. The authority conducted a hearing March 1.

Gov. Rhodes commutation warrant noted that the six members of the parole authority at the hearing recommended commutation of the sentence.

The prisoner's attorneys visited him several times while he was in "Death Row" at Ohio Penitentiary and report he has developed considerable talent for freehand drawing.

Camp Fire Girl News

Easter eggs were colored by Blue Bird Group 17 of the Camp Fire Girls Monday afternoon at Calcutta School under supervision of the leader, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, and assistant leader, Mrs. Mary Mellington, who provided the eggs.

The eggs were placed in baskets and taken to Geraldine's Rest Home, where the group visited with the residents and sang songs.

Blue Sky Salesmen

JERUSALEM (AP) — Two Israeli students are being held for selling 20 bottles of "Holy Land air" to tourists for 20 cents a bottle. They gave the proceeds to the Committee for the Prevention of Air Pollution.

April 19 By Junior Class

Play Set At South Side

The Junior Class of South Side High School at Hookstown will present a comedy, "Hillbilly Weddin'," April 19 at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

The play concerns the antics of a father who attempts to "marry off" six daughters as soon as possible. R. G. Cooling, class sponsor, is the director.

Alvin Whitehill has the lead role as "Paw Belsnickle." Sandy Rardin plays his wife.

The cast also includes Suzie Goodlin, Beverly Illig, Martha Molnar, Patty Moore, Karen Peden, Marie Hughes, Hencil Kearns, Dan Dawson, Bill Powell, Mary Dawson, Jason Allison, Louis McCarrell, Diane Patton, Rick Ford, Jackie Fox and Dave Elliot.

Tickets will be on sale at the door or may be obtained from the class members.

Sentence Due On 4 Charges

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today deferred until Friday imposition of sentence on a young motorist who pleaded guilty to four traffic charges.

Robert Donahue of Dresden Ave. is accused of operating an auto without a driver's license, reckless driving, using a "defective or inadequate muffler"' on his auto and failing to halt when signalled by the red light and siren of a police cruiser.

Donahue was taken into custody Wednesday night on the charges filed by Patrolman Charles Coen after he pursued the defendant Tuesday night about 10:45. The officer said he attempted to halt Donahue on E. 4th St., but the motorist continued. Coen said he "chased him all over West End."

Questioned by the judge, Donahue said he became frightened and fled because he is on parole from the Ohio State Reformatory. The judge said he will impose sentence tomorrow after talking with Donahue's parole officer.

"I don't want to see you go back to the reformatory and I don't want you to lose your job" in a service station, the court said.

Meanwhile, Raymond L. Pieri of New Galilee, Pa., forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge of operating an auto with defective brakes. He was cited April 4 on State Route 170 by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

2 Drivers Forfeit $69 On 19 Parking Tickets

Two motorists forfeited appearance bonds totaling $69 today in Municipal Court on "Meter Maid" charges they ignored 19 old parking tickets.

Melvin Clark of 261 Center St., accused of failing to pay the penalty for 10 citations, forfeited a $35.50 bond. Ronald Beckwith of 309 W. 9th St., charged with ignoring nine tickets, forfeited $33.50.

Both affidavits were signed by "Meter Maid" Juanita Stoffel.

Bid Opening Planned Beaver Road Project

Rep. Robert O. Davis of the 13th Legislative District has announced the Pennsylvania Department of Highways will open bids May 10 for Section 4 of the Beaver Valley Expressway in Center and Potter Townships.

The length of the project will be 2.73 miles from the south end of the new Beaver Valley Expressway Bridge over the Ohio River to the intersection of Legislative Route 04043 and Township Road 481.

The road will consist of two ribbons of reinforced cement concrete each 24 feet wide with a medial strip 44 feet wide, one reinforced concrete box and two bridges with alternate superstructures and drainage.

New Officers Are Named By Newell Junior Women

Mrs. Marge Beckner was elected president when the Newell Junior Woman's Club met Wednesday in the IOOF Hall.

Others named were Mrs. Edna LaNeve, vice president; Mrs. Sandy Stine, recording secretary; Mrs. Joann Gessford, corresponding secretary, and Joyce Krieder, treasurer.

A delegation of 10 club members and 3 Juniorettes will attend the West Virginia convention of Federated Junior Women's Clubs May 17-18 at Huntington.

A thank - you letter was read from the East Liverpool Junior Woman's Club for a donation to the film, "One Quarter of a Million Teen-agers," on venereal disease.

June 1 was set as the date for an installation dinner and dance.

Mrs. LaNeve reported on progress on the proposed Newell post office.

A discussion was held concerning whether or not to send a girl to Girls State. A final decision was delayed.

The club will send a boy and girl to a conservation camp at Tomlinson Run State Park.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with Easter baskets. Hostesses were Mrs. Kiger, Miss Marilyn Gibas and Mrs. Phyllis Jividen.

The next meeting will be April 23 at 8 p.m. at the American Legion.

'In The Heat Of The Night' Gains 5

Hepburn, Steiger Win Actress And Actor Oscars

Katharine Hepburn, 58, was named 1967's best motion picture actress as a perplexed mother whose daughter plans to marry a Negro in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner."

The accolades of movieland were scattered, and there were a few surprises Wednesday night. Considered hotter contenders than Hepburn were Faye Dunaway of the explosive "Bonnie and Clyde" and Anne Bancroft, the neurotic who seduces a youth half her age in "The Graduate."

Steiger was acclaimed by Sidney Poitier, the boyfriend taken home to "Dinner" and the Negro costar of Steiger in "Heat" this way:

Both "In the Heat of the Night" and "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" dealt with the racial problem.

Supporting honors went to George Kennedy, the chain gang convict of "Cool Hand Luke" and to Broadway's Estelle Parsons in "Bonnie and Clyde," her second movie and first important film role.

Steiger, the southern sheriff who reluctantly lets Poitier, a Negro detective from Philadelphia, help him solve a crime, nosed out two other also favored nominees: Dustin Hoffman as a confused youth in "The Graduate" and Warren Beatty as the ruthless bank robber Clyde Barrow in "Bonnie and Clyde."

The glittering motion picture Academy Awards, televised and broadcast through the United States and Canada, were presided over for the 14th time by Bob Hope.

Abrams New Commander In Viet

President Names Watson For Top Postal Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has moved quickly to replace Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, first Cabinet casualty of his "lame duck" administration, while making official the expected appointment of Gen. Creighton W. Abrams as U.S. commander in Vietnam.

The President told White House newsmen Wednesday he had accepted O'Brien's resignation and had nominated W. Marvin Watson, now presidential appointments secretary, to fill the Cabinet post.

In addition to naming Abrams, 53, to take over for Gen. William C. Westmoreland when he becomes Army chief of staff in July, Johnson picked Adm. John S. McCain, 57, now commander of U.S. naval forces in Europe, to succeed retiring Adm. U.S.Grant Sharp as commander in chief, Pacific.

The military reshuffle also involved Johnson's naming of Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, now commandant of the National War College in Washington and staff secretary to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, to succeed Abrams as deputy U.S. commander in Vietnam.

Boy Who Fled From Officer Will Be Moved To Columbus

LISBON — The 14 - year - old boy who fled handcuffed from a Juvenile Court officer here Monday morning will be conveyed Friday to the permanent custody of the Ohio Youth Commission at Columbus.

Court spokesmen said two men will accompany the driver to make sure the youth is delivered on order of Judge Louis Tobin. The boy, who escaped from a court officer about a year ago, has been on probation several times and repeatedly has violated conditions set by the court.

The sheriff's department and East Liverpool police nabbed the boy Monday about 8 p.m. Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan said the youth told him he walked from Lisbon to East Liverpool after slipping one hand out of a loose cuff and discarding the restraining belt and metal ring which held the cuff chain. The belt was found behind a service station on E. Chestnut St. about two blocks from the jail. The boy slipped the open cuff through the ring, loosened and dropped the belt then clamped the cuff beside the secure one on his other arm and shoved both under his shirtsleeve out of sight.

The sheriff said he has no immediate plan to arraign Charles Mercer Jr., 18, of Ravine St., East Liverpool, on an escape from confinement charge. The youth was captured early Tuesday in East Liverpool three weeks after he and five other prisoners sawed out of the County Jail. Mark F. Heverly, 22, of Sebring is the only one still at large.

Just a few days before the escape, Mercer pleaded guilty to a burglary Dec. 27 at Pickens grocery and a robbery Jan. 2 at the Humble Service Station, both in East Liverpool. The court ordered a pre-sentence investigation and report.

GOP Pushes New Bid For Rockefeller

WASHINGTON (AP) — Encouraged by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's latest pronouncements of presidential availability, Republicans who want the New Yorker nominated for the White House have unleashed a new promotional effort.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky announced formation of a Rockefeller-for-President Committee and said it would include a group of political and business leaders prominent in the GOP.

He scheduled a news conference for today to announce the committee's makeup.

Even as that announcement was being drafted, a source close to Rockefeller said it's probably too late to stop the march of Richard M. Nixon toward the Republican nomination.

Morton said the movement he announced was a spontaneous draft, an effort of which Rockefeller has been advised in advance.

"He understands that it has been undertaken to persuade him to become a candidate and to persuade the Republican party, through our delegates to the national convention, to nominate him," Morton said.

J. Irwin Miller, a Columbus, Ind., businessman, is expected to be named today to head the new Rockefeller committee.

Warming Trend Due

The weather, which turned cooler during Wednesday's early-evening thunderstorm, is to warm up tonight and Friday.

The forecast calls for partly cloudy and not quite so cool tonight and for partly cloudy and warmer Friday.

Thant Sees Next Week Start Of Peace Talks

BRUSSELS (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said today he thinks talks between North Vietnam and the United States will start next week.

"I think conversations will take place sometime next week," he told newsmen as he left for Luxembourg. He is touring European capitals.

Thant said Washington and Hanoi had contacts over the past few days on a place at which to meet and possible places included Geneva, Paris, Phnom Penh, Vientiane, Jakarta, Rangoon and New Delhi.

Hepburn, Steiger Win Actress And Actor Oscars

Katharine Hepburn, 58, was named 1967's best motion picture actress as a perplexed mother whose daughter plans to marry a Negro in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner."

The accolades of movieland were scattered, and there were a few surprises Wednesday night. Considered hotter contenders than Hepburn were Faye Dunaway of the explosive "Bonnie and Clyde" and Anne Bancroft, the neurotic who seduces a youth half her age in "The Graduate."

Steiger was acclaimed by Sidney Poitier, the boyfriend taken home to "Dinner" and the Negro costar of Steiger in "Heat" this way:

Both "In the Heat of the Night" and "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" dealt with the racial problem.

Supporting honors went to George Kennedy, the chain gang convict of "Cool Hand Luke" and to Broadway's Estelle Parsons in "Bonnie and Clyde," her second movie and first important film role.

Steiger, the southern sheriff who reluctantly lets Poitier, a Negro detective from Philadelphia, help him solve a crime, nosed out two other also favored nominees: Dustin Hoffman as a confused youth in "The Graduate" and Warren Beatty as the ruthless bank robber Clyde Barrow in "Bonnie and Clyde."

The glittering motion picture Academy Awards, televised and broadcast through the United States and Canada, were presided over for the 14th time by Bob Hope.

Abrams New Commander In Viet

President Names Watson For Top Postal Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has moved quickly to replace Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, first Cabinet casualty of his "lame duck" administration, while making official the expected appointment of Gen. Creighton W. Abrams as U.S. commander in Vietnam.

The President told White House newsmen Wednesday he had accepted O'Brien's resignation and had nominated W. Marvin Watson, now presidential appointments secretary, to fill the Cabinet post.

In addition to naming Abrams, 53, to take over for Gen. William C. Westmoreland when he becomes Army chief of staff in July, Johnson picked Adm. John S. McCain, 57, now commander of U.S. naval forces in Europe, to succeed retiring Adm. U.S.Grant Sharp as commander in chief, Pacific.

The military reshuffle also involved Johnson's naming of Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, now commandant of the National War College in Washington and staff secretary to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, to succeed Abrams as deputy U.S. commander in Vietnam.

Boy Who Fled From Officer Will Be Moved To Columbus

LISBON — The 14 - year - old boy who fled handcuffed from a Juvenile Court officer here Monday morning will be conveyed Friday to the permanent custody of the Ohio Youth Commission at Columbus.

Court spokesmen said two men will accompany the driver to make sure the youth is delivered on order of Judge Louis Tobin. The boy, who escaped from a court officer about a year ago, has been on probation several times and repeatedly has violated conditions set by the court.

The sheriff's department and East Liverpool police nabbed the boy Monday about 8 p.m. Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan said the youth told him he walked from Lisbon to East Liverpool after slipping one hand out of a loose cuff and discarding the restraining belt and metal ring which held the cuff chain. The belt was found behind a service station on E. Chestnut St. about two blocks from the jail. The boy slipped the open cuff through the ring, loosened and dropped the belt then clamped the cuff beside the secure one on his other arm and shoved both under his shirtsleeve out of sight.

The sheriff said he has no immediate plan to arraign Charles Mercer Jr., 18, of Ravine St., East Liverpool, on an escape from confinement charge. The youth was captured early Tuesday in East Liverpool three weeks after he and five other prisoners sawed out of the County Jail. Mark F. Heverly, 22, of Sebring is the only one still at large.

Just a few days before the escape, Mercer pleaded guilty to a burglary Dec. 27 at Pickens grocery and a robbery Jan. 2 at the Humble Service Station, both in East Liverpool. The court ordered a pre-sentence investigation and report.

GOP Pushes New Bid For Rockefeller

WASHINGTON (AP) — Encouraged by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's latest pronouncements of presidential availability, Republicans who want the New Yorker nominated for the White House have unleashed a new promotional effort.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky announced formation of a Rockefeller-for-President Committee and said it would include a group of political and business leaders prominent in the GOP.

He scheduled a news conference for today to announce the committee's makeup.

Even as that announcement was being drafted, a source close to Rockefeller said it's probably too late to stop the march of Richard M. Nixon toward the Republican nomination.

Morton said the movement he announced was a spontaneous draft, an effort of which Rockefeller has been advised in advance.

"He understands that it has been undertaken to persuade him to become a candidate and to persuade the Republican party, through our delegates to the national convention, to nominate him," Morton said.

J. Irwin Miller, a Columbus, Ind., businessman, is expected to be named today to head the new Rockefeller committee.

Warming Trend Due

The weather, which turned cooler during Wednesday's early-evening thunderstorm, is to warm up tonight and Friday.

The forecast calls for partly cloudy and not quite so cool tonight and for partly cloudy and warmer Friday.

Thant Sees Next Week Start Of Peace Talks

BRUSSELS (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said today he thinks talks between North Vietnam and the United States will start next week.

"I think conversations will take place sometime next week," he told newsmen as he left for Luxembourg. He is touring European capitals.

Thant said Washington and Hanoi had contacts over the past few days on a place at which to meet and possible places included Geneva, Paris, Phnom Penh, Vientiane, Jakarta, Rangoon and New Delhi.

ANN LANDERS

Coolness At Card Table

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 27 and the mother of three children. Last year I did something I'm very much ashamed of. I had an affair with a man who plays golf with my husband and belongs to our bridge group. He's married and has a family.

My youngest child was fathered by this man and he knows it. My husband knows it, too, and he has been a saint. He treats the baby just as lovingly as he does the two older children and never once has thrown up to me the fact that the child is not his.

What I'm writing about is the cool attitude of my former lover. He hasn't so much as bought the baby a gift, doesn't come around to see her and never once has inquired as to how she is.

When I passed snapshots of the baby around the bridge table last night he took a quick glance and handed them to me with no comment. Does this man have any legal responsibility toward the child? What do you make of his strange indifference?—B.W.D.

Dear B.: The man has no legal responsibility whatever. According to the law, your husband is the father of the child.

On the personal side, consider yourself extremely fortunate that your husband is such a forgiving soul. He could have bounced you out on your head and taken the two older children.

You are lucky, again, that your lover has no interest in the little girl. The best gift he can bestow upon her is his indifference.

Torch Bearer

Dear Ann: I used to think that anyone who would write to you for help would have to be nuts. Well, I guess I'm nuts like the rest of them, because here I am with my problem.

When I was in high school 15 years ago — went steady with Nick. He was the All-American boy — football, basketball, track, musician, debater and president of his class. He went to the state university and my family moved to Phoenix. We lost track of each other.

About three years ago I heard he's married and lives in Cincinnati. I'm now happily married and the mother of three children. Our national sorority convention is going to be held in Cincinnati in May and I'd love to call Nickey. I'm ashamed to tell you how excited I get at the thought of seeing him again.

Would it be wrong to invite him to the hotel . . . just for a cup of coffee — for old time's sake? Believe me, Ann, all I want to do is see if he's still handsome, exciting and sexy. — NO ULTERIOR MOTIVES.

Dear No: If all you want is to see if Nickey is still handsome, exciting and sexy, by all means invite him to the hotel for a cup of coffee. But be sure to tell him to bring his wife — just in case he is.

Needs Watching

Dear Ann: I'm only 14 but I have the face and figure to get any boy.

I had a date last night and we got lost. I didn't get home until 2:30 a.m. My mother yelled so loud she woke up the whole house. Then she got madder yet because she smelled cigarette smoke in my hair. I told her my date smoked and not me — then my purse fell open and the cigarettes dropped out.

Now my mother says I'm grounded for two weeks. She watches me like a hawk and treats me like a criminal. Help! Help!

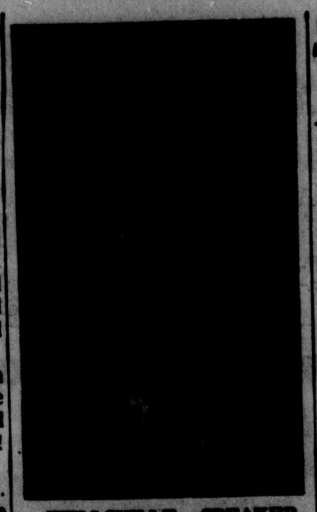

Please answer in the paper. My mother won't buy me stamps. —PRISONER.

Dear P: So your mother won't buy you stamps? Who buys your cigarettes?

You sound like a real handful, Toots, and my only comment on your punishment is that it's too light. No point in my lecturing you about cigarettes or anything else, for that matter. For your 16th birthday your mother should give you a color picture of your lungs.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

WELLSVILLE SPEAKER. Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District Congressman, will speak at the Wellsville Jaycees "Bosses Night" dinner Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the SOI Hall. Three civic awards will be presented. Deadline for reservations is Friday noon, Ralph Fusco, program chairman, said.

Good Friday Services Set For Lisbon

LISBON — The community Good Friday service from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church will be on the theme "The Praying Christ."

The Rev. William V. Ring of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ, who prepared the program, said it will deal particularly with Christ's praying on the cross.

Dramatic readings will be given by the Rev. Donald Blom of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church and the Rev. Frederick Shiltz of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Mary Schnader of St. Jacob's Church and Mrs. Ruth Ann Pannier of Trinity U.P. will sing solos. The Rev. Paul Haney of the First Christian Church will conduct the meditation.

Approximately 200 attended the community service Wednesday evening when the Rev. Fr. Stewart Platt of St. George Catholic Church preached on "The Price of Unity" at the First Christian Church. Churchmen said it marked the first time a priest has appeared in a Protestant church pulpit here.

Two Men Killed, One Unhurt As Planes Collide

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two men were killed Wednesday night when their small plane collided in the air with another light plane. The pilot of the second craft crash-landed, but walked away unhurt.

Berry H. Young Jr., 40, Canal Winchester, escaped injury, and authorities said he did "a remarkable job" in keeping his plane under control.

Killed were Ralph D. Bibler, 28, Baltimore, Ohio, a flight instructor; and David Dunnick, 21, Lima, a junior at Denison University. Dunnick was the pilot.

Investigators said Young, in a Beechcraft Bonanza, had clearance to land at Port Columbus Airport. The Beechcraft hit the other plane, a Piper Cherokee, in its tail section, ripping it off, Don Sundin, a spokesman for the Licking County Airport said. The Piper was owned by the Licking Airport.

The Piper immediately dropped to the ground, sheriff's deputies said. Young was able to keep his plane under control for a forced landing. The planes landed in a field about a half-mile apart.

Authorities said they had not yet learned the cause of the crash. Young told deputies he did not see the other plane.

8 Democrats In Area Push For Johnson

Despite his decision not to run again, President Lyndon B. Johnson will have eight delegate votes from the 18th Congressional District at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago in August, the six county chairmen in the district learned Wednesday night during a meeting at Bellaire.

The delegates representing the eight district votes said it is their unanimous decision "to ask the President to reconsider and to go to the National Convention pledged to vote for him."

If he still maintains his position at the time of the convention, the eight votes for the Presidential nomination will go to Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, veteran Democratic 18th District congressman, the delegates said.

The chairmen termed Hays "a national figure," and pointed out that President William McKinley "went from the same Congressional District to the White House."

The six county chairmen also voted to instruct Don Gosney of Columbiana and Miss Esther Pinsky of Bellaire to "work to reorganize the state party into an effective group that represents the broad scope of the people of Ohio."

Gosney is state central committeeman from the 18th District and Miss Pinsky, an attorney, is the state central committeeman. The other said the party should represent all walks of life in Ohio, "including agriculture, labor, white collar workers, small businessmen and industry."

Gosney presided as central committeewoman. The other chairmen attending were: Frank Vannelle of Belmont County, Kinsey Millison of Harrison, Dr. Robert Price of Jefferson, Dewey Breckinridge of Carroll and Howard (Bud) Mercer of Tuscarawas.

Morton Neipp of Toledo is the incumbent state party chairman. The state organization has endorsed John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati for the U. S. Senate nomination, but the county party organization is backing Frank J. Lausche, the incumbent.

Coolness At Card Table

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 27 and the mother of three children. Last year I did something I'm very much ashamed of. I had an affair with a man who plays golf with my husband and belongs to our bridge group. He's married and has a family.

My youngest child was fathered by this man and he knows it. My husband knows it, too, and he has been a saint. He treats the baby just as lovingly as he does the two older children and never once has thrown up to me the fact that the child is not his.

What I'm writing about is the cool attitude of my former lover. He hasn't so much as bought the baby a gift, doesn't come around to see her and never once has inquired as to how she is.

When I passed snapshots of the baby around the bridge table last night he took a quick glance and handed them to me with no comment. Does this man have any legal responsibility toward the child? What do you make of his strange indifference?—B.W.D.

Dear B.: The man has no legal responsibility whatever. According to the law, your husband is the father of the child.

On the personal side, consider yourself extremely fortunate that your husband is such a forgiving soul. He could have bounced you out on your head and taken the two older children.

You are lucky, again, that your lover has no interest in the little girl. The best gift he can bestow upon her is his indifference.

Torch Bearer

Dear Ann: I used to think that anyone who would write to you for help would have to be nuts. Well, I guess I'm nuts like the rest of them, because here I am with my problem.

Rowe Lauds Racial Stand; Lists Needs

Earl W. Rowe of Cleveland, instrumental in organization of the Citizens for Total Action (CTA) group in East Liverpool, has cited "the interracial cooperation which seems available" in the community.

Rowe visited the city this week for committeee meetings and conferences with city officials, the Ohio State Employment Services office and other agencies.

He said he was "Quite impressed with the overall tone of race relations here," adding, "There is much to be done in the fields of housing, unemployment and youth opportunity, but we are pleased at the interracial cooperation available."

"Since organizing CTA, we have received tremendous response and encouragement from all city groups."

"The CTA," Rowe explained, "intends to address itself to the betterment of living conditions for all citizens here, by implementation of resident participation programs and civic effort.

"Philanthropic funds are being solicited from the Ford Foundation, the federal economic aid programs and others in the Columbiana County area. CTA will seek to work with the youth of the city as well as the underprivileged, the unemployed or the under-employed."

Rowe said he is convinced most citizens want a peaceful harmonious existence, regardless of race, creed or color, and CTA is determined to work with all good citizens to dispel discrimination, prejudice and racism.

Rowe is an attorney who has been a social worker and educator. He is currently regional director of Cleveland's Action In Manpower, a federally sponsored program for the education and training of the underprivileged.

Youth Must Pay $100 To Girl For Tear Gas 'Shot'

An East Liverpool youth, 17, who admitted discharging a tear gas pen in a young woman's face March 30 on Market St., will have to pay her $100 in damages at $10 per week.

Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court issued the order Tuesday at Lisbon. He also ordered the youth to apologize to the victim — Nila Miller, 19, of 227 W. Center Alley — in the presence of Ed Hedrick, Juvenile Court probation officer.

The youth was released to the custody of his parents, but the judge said he is not to have in his possession any firearms, including any tear gas guns, for the next six months.

Miss Miller was treated at City Hospital for tear gas burns of the face and eyes. David Icenhour was treated for exposure to tear gas. Judge Tobin ordered the defendant to pay Icenhour $5 for medical expenses.

Five Charged In Death Of Art Teacher

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police have charged three Negro young man with first-degree murder and two juveniles with assault with a deadly weapon in the beating and fatal stabbing of an art instructor during Monday night's rioting.

The arrests came Wednesday as city officials ended a nighttime curfew for the city and the State Liquor Department removed a liquor sales ban. The adults were held without bond, the juveniles were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Noel Wright, 30, a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati, was slain by a group of Negroes as he and his wife, 28, drove in the Mount Auburn section.

The murder charges were lodged against Eugene Calloway, 20; Terry A. Ware, 18; and T. Edward Lewis, 22, all Cincinnatians.

Wright's death was one of two attributed to the rioting which erupted in Avondale. Damages in the city due to rioting were estimated at $500,000. About 200 persons were arrested.

Tax Service Slated

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland and Akron offices of the Internal Revenue Service will be open Saturday morning to assist last minute income tax filers trying to beat the Monday deadline.

Premier Wins By Landslide In Bahamas

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — A landslide election victory gave Premier Lyndon O. Pindling complete power over the Bahama Islands Thursday and left the old white ruling structure of this British colony in ruins.

In a flush of black nationalism, the Negroes went to the polls in record numbers and the 38-year-old premier, a Negro, who had ruled by a one vote margin in the House of Assembly, suddenly found himself in control of 29 of the 38 seats.

The triumph in Wednesday's election became even more one sided when a Labor party member and an independent who had joined in a coalition with Pindling also were swept back into office.

It was a shattering defeat for the once all powerful United Bahamian party headed by wealthy white merchants. It limped out of the contest with only seven house seats.

Pindling and his Progressive Liberal party now are expected to press Great Britain for full internal self control in the islands where 86 per cent of the 150,000 residents are Negroes.

One Nassau source said recently that Britain "may decide to grant full independence and wash its hands of the Bahamas."

Thief Takes Gun And Phonograph At Heights Home

A Pleasant Heights man told police property worth $120 was taken from his home by an intruder who gained entrance between 5 and 9 Wednesday night through a window on the north side of the home.

Ronald Springer of 1710 Idaho Ave. told officers the burglar took a 12-gauge shotgun and cleaning kit worth $40 and a solid state phonograph valued at $80.

Meanwhile, officers investigated an entry at the unoccupied home of Mrs. Mollie Wilson of 1017 Ephriam St. but could not determine immediately if anything was missing.

The investigation began when John Maley of 837 Laura Ave. telephoned police and reported he had found letters scattered in his yard which had been addressed to Mrs. Wilson. Patrolmen Charles A. Winters and K. J. Montgomery went to the Wilson home, where they found a door unlocked.

Mrs. Betty White, Mrs. Wilson's neighbor, told the officers she had a key to the home, as she was taking care of the flowers while the owner was in California. She entered the home with the officers, who found an intruder had gained entry by cutting a screen on the bathroom window. Drawers were ransacked both upstairs and downstairs, but it could not be learned if anything was missing, the officers said.

The triumph in Wednesday's election became even more one sided when a Labor party member and an independent who had joined in a coalition with Pindling also were swept back into office.

It was a shattering defeat for the once all powerful United Bahamian party headed by wealthy white merchants. It limped out of the contest with only seven house seats.

Pindling and his Progressive Liberal party now are expected to press Great Britain for full internal self control in the islands where 86 per cent of the 150,000 residents are Negroes.

One Nassau source said recently that Britain "may decide to grant full independence and wash its hands of the Bahamas."

Thief Takes Gun And Phonograph At Heights Home

A Pleasant Heights man told police property worth $120 was taken from his home by an intruder who gained entrance between 5 and 9 Wednesday night through a window on the north side of the home.

Ronald Springer of 1710 Idaho Ave. told officers the burglar took a 12-gauge shotgun and cleaning kit worth $40 and a solid state phonograph valued at $80.

Meanwhile, officers investigated an entry at the unoccupied home of Mrs. Mollie Wilson of 1017 Ephriam St. but could not determine immediately if anything was missing.

The investigation began when John Maley of 837 Laura Ave. telephoned police and reported he had found letters scattered in his yard which had been addressed to Mrs. Wilson. Patrolmen Charles A. Winters and K. J. Montgomery went to the Wilson home, where they found a door unlocked.

Mrs. Betty White, Mrs. Wilson's neighbor, told the officers she had a key to the home, as she was taking care of the flowers while the owner was in California. She entered the home with the officers, who found an intruder had gained entry by cutting a screen on the bathroom window. Drawers were ransacked both upstairs and downstairs, but it could not be learned if anything was missing, the officers said.

Nine Ohio schools, including eight in the Ohio Conference, are in the Top 50 in defense, while only two schools are in the same category on offence. Kenyon is ninth nationally with a 98.6 average, quite an achievement when it is seen that the Ohio Conference is so defensive minded. Findlay is eighth with a 98.9 average.

Ashland is the top defensive team nationally, yielding only 38.8 points a game. The Eagles also led the nation by committing only 10.7 fouls a contest, and were 14th in average scoring margin despite tallying only 52.5 points a game themselves, less points than were yielded by the number two defensive team, Chicago U.

Akron was fifth in defense, Wittenberg 10th, Bud Manes' Thiel team 11th with a 64.8 yield, Hiram 13th, Mt. Union 17th, Wooster 29th, Denison 31st, Westminster 34th, Oberlin 42nd and Marietta 49th. Kenyon was sixth and Findlay seventh in average scoring margin.

KENYON LED the country in foul shooting, making 79.7 per cent, while Wilmington was fifth, Ashland 30th and Morris Harvey 34th. Youngstown was ninth in least personal fouls committed, while John Carroll was third and Oberlin sixth in most personal fouls committed.

Individually, Kenyon's John Rinka ended up sixth in scoring with 31.8 points a game. Jeff Claypool of Grove City was 16th, Charlie Claggett of Denison 24th, Rinka's backcourt partner John Dunlop 48th and Findlay's Carder twins, Jerry and Jim, 68th and 75th. Claypool was 20th in field goal percentage, while Dunlop was seventh and Rinka 26th in foul shooting. Dunlop made an incredible 203 of 229 foul shots for 88.6 per cent. He made more than 50 more shots than anyone ranked ahead of him. He had the third best single game of the season in this department with 20 of 23 free throws against Findlay. Rinka had the sixth best scoring effort of the season with 55 points against Kentucky Southern. The best effort was 77 by William English of Winston-Salem against Fayetteville.

DENNY BARRETT, popular area sportscaster, scored a hole-in-one over the weekend at the Mill Creek Par 3 course in Youngstown. Barrett aced the 95-yard 14th hole.

DICK ADIPOTTI, who has been an outstanding ball carrier for Youngstown U. the last three seasons, has signed a pro contract with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

JOHN GEORGES, who guided Brookfield to an unbeaten basketball season this year, has resigned. He had a 63-21 record in four years at the Steel Valley Conference school. Georges said he resigned to continue his education. No successor has been named.

The quiz will appear in The Review every Thursday, along with the answers to the preceding week's quiz and the names of the people who got the most questions right.

The questions are not meant to be easy, and pertain in many cases to what is sometimes called "sports trivia." Please do not phone the Review with answers or questions about the quiz. Answers may be mailed in or dropped off at the Review before noon on Wednesdays.

Earl Diddle of the Ceramic Hotel is again this week the winner of the quiz, but he missed three questions. Rick Barry this past season played for KYA, a San Francisco area radio station; Art Heyman of the Pipers led the Eastern League in scoring last year and the player with the odd hometown is Tommy Reynolds of the Mets, who was born in Arizona, Louisiana. Cal McLish is actually named for three people. His full name is Calvin Coolidge Julius Caesar Tecumshe McLish, honoring a former president, a Roman and an Indian chief. The first winners of the various tournaments were Central Missouri, NAIA; Temple, NIT; Oregon, NCAA; Pasadena, junior college; and Wheaton (Ill.), NCAA college division. A host of industrial nicknames around the state include the Norwalk Truckers, the Collinwood Railroaders, the Yorkville Ductilites and the Jackson Ironmen.

This week's questions:

1. Who is the only player to ever draw five intentional walks in a major league baseball game?
2. Who is the only player to draw an intentional walk with the bases loaded?
3. What major league pitcher gave up the most home runs in his career?
4. About what sports figure was it once said "He has a face like a closed fist"?
5. Name eight former major league baseball players who weren't pitchers who are presently broadcasting or telecasting major league baseball.
6. What major league team has a manager and a front office executive of the same name?
7. What major league manager is also a vice president of his club?
8. Which major league team has the most farm teams?
9. What major league team is the closet to its top farm team and where is the farm team located?
10. Now that the Toronto franchise has moved to Louisville, there is only one AAA farm team not in the United States. Where is it?

Aspro's Triple Drives In Two

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

He's lived through 568 losses in six seasons and he just wasn't prepared to start the new season with another setback.

So, he did something about it.

It was Aspro's two-out triple in the bottom of the ninth inning that gave the Astros a 5-4 opening night victory over Pittsburgh Wednesday night.

Elsewhere as the National League started its 93rd season, St. Louis' world champions pulled out a 2-1 victory over Atlanta, San Francisco pushed across three ninth inning runs and beat New York 5-4, Cincinnati battered Chicago 9-4 and Philadelphia blanked Los Angeles 2-0.

Aspromonte, who's been with Houston so long he predates the Astrodome and goes back to the days when the Astros were called the Colts, climaxed a three-run rally in the ninth with his triple.

Maury Wills' two-run single had moved Pittsburgh into a 4-2 lead in the top of the ninth.

Jesus Alou drove in San Francisco's winning runs with a ninth inning double that climaxed a three-run rally against the Mets. Ron Swoboda drove in all four New York runs with a single and a homer.

Tony Perez smacked a three-run homer and Tommy Helms had a two-run shot as Cincinnati battered Chicago. Perez' shot keyed a five-run Reds' rally in the fifth inning and Helms' homer wrapped it up in the eighth.

Yastrzemski Homers Twice In Boston Win

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

They yawned when Carl Yastrzemski hit his first home run of the 1968 season. But they could hardly believe the second one.

The first homer for the 1967 Triple Crown winner came in the seventh inning of Boston's 7-3 opening day victory over Detroit Wednesday. It was the routine kind for Carl: over the wall and into the seats.

Sonny Siebert stopped the White Sox on just two hits while Duke Sims lead a lusty Indian hitting attack with two homers. Singles by Duane Josephson and Ken Boyer were the only hits off Siebert.

Mel Stottlemyre also turned in a fine pitching performance, setting down the Angels on four hits. The Yankees only had three themselves off George Brunet, but one of them was a homer by Frank Fernandez in the second inning.

Don Buford's two hits, one run scored and run-saving fielding play highlighted the Orioles' victory. Brooks Robinson homered for the Birds and Tom Phoebus was the winning pitcher.

Dean Chance Blanks Nats On Four Hits

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was satisfying start for the Twins and Chance, who had to wait six months to win another game after blowing the American League pennant to Boston on the final day of the 1967 season. The big right-hander credits the difference between the two games to Lady Luck.

"This was just one of those days when Lady Luck was with me," he said. "It's funny. On the last game of last year I was ready and geared to go and I lost.

"Here it is the first game of the year and who knows what kind of shape I'm in, and I win."

He retired the first nine batters before rookie Del Unser beat out the dribbler, then cut down 12 more in a row before nicked for two sharp singles as he tired in the eighth. Chance wound up with eight strikeouts and didn't walk a man.

Pipers Win In Minnesota

By The Associated Press

Because Minnesota and Dallas played the perfect hosts, Pittsbugh and New Orleans hold 2-1 leads today in their best-of-7 American Basketball Association semifinal playoff series.

Pittsburgh took a one-game lead in the Eastern Division playoffs by defeating the Muskies Wednesday night at Minnesota 107-99. The Pipers pulled away in the closing minutes.

Dallas had a 15-game winning streak at home but New Orleans came from behind in the final three minutes to edge the Chaparrals 110-107 in the Southern Methodist University Coliseum. That put the Bucs one game up in the Western Division playoffs with game No. 4 set for tonight in New Orleans.

Mets Still Winless On Opening Day

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — At 1:10 p.m., Tom Seaver, National League rookie pitcher-of-the-year in 1967, faced San Francisco Giant second baseman Ron Hunt in the first inning of the new baseball season.

"I was confident," the New York Mets' 23-year-old right-hander calmly but dejectedly told newsmen later. "I wanted to win that game more than any I ever pitched. We never had won an opener."

At 3:15 p.m., Seaver walked slowly off the mound while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seaver, watched in disappointment from behind the Mets' dugout.

He still had been confident starting the ninth Wednesday. "Only three outs and we'd win our first opener," he thought as he took the mound.

But Jim Hart's single drove home Willie Mays, who had singled, cutting the Mets' lead to 4-3. Hart was the potential tying run.

D. Johnson Of Orioles 'Shoeless Joe'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dave Johnson isn't expected to fill shortstop Mark Bellanger's shoes, but it would be nice if he could fill his own.

76ers Win In Boston, Tie Series

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia 76ers are considered to have the best starting five in the National Basketball Association. But their bench strength was the big question if the 76ers were to win a second straight championship.

So what happened Wednesday night? The bench, Matt Guokas, Billy Melchionni and Johnny Green, helped spark the 76ers to a 116-105 victory over the Boston Celtics at Boston to even the best-of-7 Eastern Division final playoff series at 1-1.

In Los Angeles, the Lakers came up with a big fourth quarter to down San Francisco 115-112 and take a 2-0 lead in the best-of-7 Western Division final.

Blues Lead Flyers In NHL Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Boston Bruins hope to begin a new Impossible Dream tonight. The Philadelphia Flyers hope to avoid another nightmare.

The National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs continue tonight on four fronts but the St. Louis Blues and the Flyers went at it Wednesday night like there would be no tomorrow.

The Blues finally won it 3-2 on Larry Keenan's goal at 4:10 of the second sudden-death overtime period. That gave them a 2-1 lead in their best-of-7 West Division semifinals. The teams return to the St. Louis Arena tonight for another go-round.

In the East, Boston, trailing Montreal 3-0 and facing a virtually hopeless task against the division champs, face the Canadiens again in Boston, spurred on by the baseball Red Sox "Impossible Dream" 1967 pennant against 100-to-1 odds.

Dean Chance Blanks Nats On Four Hits

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota ace Dean Chance gives luck a little pat for his superb pitching performance in shutting out Washington 2-0 on four hits in baseball's annual inaugural game Wednesday.

It was satisfying start for the Twins and Chance, who had to wait six months to win another game after blowing the American League pennant to Boston on the final day of the 1967 season. The big right-hander credits the difference between the two games to Lady Luck.

"This was just one of those days when Lady Luck was with me," he said. "It's funny. On the last game of last year I was ready and geared to go and I lost.

"Here it is the first game of the year and who knows what kind of shape I'm in, and I win."

He retired the first nine batters before rookie Del Unser beat out the dribbler, then cut down 12 more in a row before nicked for two sharp singles as he tired in the eighth. Chance wound up with eight strikeouts and didn't walk a man.

Pipers Win In Minnesota

By The Associated Press

Because Minnesota and Dallas played the perfect hosts, Pittsbugh and New Orleans hold 2-1 leads today in their best-of-7 American Basketball Association semifinal playoff series.

Pittsburgh took a one-game lead in the Eastern Division playoffs by defeating the Muskies Wednesday night at Minnesota 107-99. The Pipers pulled away in the closing minutes.

Dallas had a 15-game winning streak at home but New Orleans came from behind in the final three minutes to edge the Chaparrals 110-107 in the Southern Methodist University Coliseum. That put the Bucs one game up in the Western Division playoffs with game No. 4 set for tonight in New Orleans.

Mets Still Winless On Opening Day

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — At 1:10 p.m., Tom Seaver, National League rookie pitcher-of-the-year in 1967, faced San Francisco Giant second baseman Ron Hunt in the first inning of the new baseball season.

"I was confident," the New York Mets' 23-year-old right-hander calmly but dejectedly told newsmen later. "I wanted to win that game more than any I ever pitched. We never had won an opener."

At 3:15 p.m., Seaver walked slowly off the mound while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seaver, watched in disappointment from behind the Mets' dugout.

He still had been confident starting the ninth Wednesday. "Only three outs and we'd win our first opener," he thought as he took the mound.

But Jim Hart's single drove home Willie Mays, who had singled, cutting the Mets' lead to 4-3. Hart was the potential tying run.

D. Johnson Of Orioles 'Shoeless Joe'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dave Johnson isn't expected to fill shortstop Mark Bellanger's shoes, but it would be nice if he could fill his own.

Johnson gave a soleful demonstration Wednesday when he replaced Belanger, the slick fielder who is on National Guard duty because of recent civil disorders.

76ers Win In Boston, Tie Series

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia 76ers are considered to have the best starting five in the National Basketball Association. But their bench strength was the big question if the 76ers were to win a second straight championship.

So what happened Wednesday night? The bench, Matt Guokas, Billy Melchionni and Johnny Green, helped spark the 76ers to a 116-105 victory over the Boston Celtics at Boston to even the best-of-7 Eastern Division final playoff series at 1-1.

In Los Angeles, the Lakers came up with a big fourth quarter to down San Francisco 115-112 and take a 2-0 lead in the best-of-7 Western Division final.

Blues Lead Flyers In NHL Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Boston Bruins hope to begin a new Impossible Dream tonight. The Philadelphia Flyers hope to avoid another nightmare.

The National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs continue tonight on four fronts but the St. Louis Blues and the Flyers went at it Wednesday night like there would be no tomorrow.

The Blues finally won it 3-2 on Larry Keenan's goal at 4:10 of the second sudden-death overtime period. That gave them a 2-1 lead in their best-of-7 West Division semifinals. The teams return to the St. Louis Arena tonight for another go-round.

In the East, Boston, trailing Montreal 3-0 and facing a virtually hopeless task against the division champs, face the Canadiens again in Boston, spurred on by the baseball Red Sox "Impossible Dream" 1967 pennant against 100-to-1 odds.

Duke Sims Hits Two Home Runs

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians make their home debut under Manager Alvin Dark today after setting the stage with a 9-0 shutout of the White Sox in the season opener in Chicago Wednesday.

A crowd of 20,000 to 25,000 is expected at Cleveland Stadium when Mayor Carl B. Stokes tosses out the first ball.

Then Sam McDowell will take the mound against the California Angels in a start toward his goal of a 20-victory season. The southpaw had a 13-15 mark last year for his first losing season.

With the exception of McDowell, Clark is expected to face the same lineup that pounded White Sox pitchers for 13 hits, including three home runs.

Ahead of Siebert in the batting order were: Tommy Harper, lf; Vern Fuller, 2b; Joe Cardenal, cf; Duke Sims, c; Tony Horton, 1b; Vic Davalillo, rf; Max Alvis, 3b, and Larry Brown ss.

Siebert, who was a 10-game winner last year while suffering recurring dizzy spells, needed just 116 pitches to beat the White Sox, striking out six and walking five. He retired the first 10 batters and the final nine in order.

He faced 31 batters, with only one getting as far as third base. The only hits off Siebert were a single by Duane Josephson leading off in the fifth inning and Ken Boyer's leadoff single in the seventh.

Sims, awarded the regular catching job by Dark to get more power in the lineup, rapped his first homer with a runner on base in the seventh off former Indian Don McMahon. He greeted Bob Priddy with his second home run leading off in the ninth.

Financial Burdens Seen For OHSAA

What's in the future for schoolboy athletics in Ohio? Following is the third and final article in a series about the Ohio High School Athletic Association. It looks to the future of the program and suggests some possible changes. (Third in a Series)

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio high school commissioner sees steady and continued growth for state school boy athletics.

But he also envisions increased financial burdens that could bring a price boost for tickets to the state basketball tournament and expansion of the cage classic to three days instead of two.

"We are seriously looking at the current setup to see what we can come up with," Commissioner Paul Landis said.

Bonuses, or cash awards, are given to schools that compete in the regional or state tournaments. A school collects $200 for each regional game it plays and $300 for each state tourney contest.

Those figures, and complete receipts from district and regional tournaments, will be made public shortly.

"With increased costs for running the tournaments and constant pressure for more money to run various sports programs, an increase in the price of tickets could be inevitable," Landis said.

All tickets now sell for $2 and there hasn't been a price increase in 10 years when tickets sold for $1.50.

Landis said he personally favors a two-day tournament for the state championship but at two different sites. As an illustration, he points to St. John Arena, the current site, and the Fairgrounds Coliseum at Columbus, for the Class A games, as good locations.

A three - day tournament, opening Thursday, would have Class A schools playing Thursday, AA Friday with both title games on Saturday. Under one plan, there would be no doubleheaders, only single encounters.

"School principals generally object to a three-day tourney because the kids would be out of school two days. But they could make up the time at the end of the school year," Landis said.

A three-day meet, as advocated by many officials, coaches and sports writers, could ease the constant clamor for tickets from the schools involved and the general public.

Landis, who is optimistic about the future, sees the day when the association's 11-sports program can also include soccer and volleyball.

"I think without a doubt," he said, "interscholastic sports will continue to grow and expand with schools sponsoring a broad program.

"All boys should be given the opportunity to derive the benefits that come from sports participation."

Landis also predicts an expansion of the junior high school program and continued growth for the girls interscholastic program, but not as rapidly because of a lack of facilities.

The association's most pressing problem? Landis believes it's the OHSAA's transfer rule.

Although Landis gives no hint of weariness, he already has advised the board of retirement plans. The commissioner will be stepping down in August of 1969.

"It has been a wonderful 45 years of coaching, officiating and administrative work.

Stottlemyre Survives Spit Scare

Stot was working on a 1-0 shutout in the eighth. Roger Repoz was on first with one out and Jay Johnstone, a pinch hitter, was up.

After throwing a strike to Johnstone, the Yankee pitcher walked off the mound and went to the mouth with his fingers. The first base umpire, Al Salerno, called an automatic ball under the new anti-spitter rule.

Stottlemyre started to argue. Manager Ralph Houk rushed out of the dugout and there was a merry scene for a couple of minutes. The Yanks announced they were finishing the game under protest. It didn't matter because they won 1-0.

"The rule says you can go to your mouth on the grass," said Houk. "Salerno claimed Mel went to his mouth while on the ground (skinned area around mound). Mel did it deliberately. They've got things so mixed up by changing this rule back and forth nobody knows what is going on."

Actually, the rule says a pitcher can not go to his mouth within an area included in an 18-foot circle around the mound.

"It shook me up for a minute," said Stottlemyre, w went to 3-1 on Johnstone before he got him out.

New Brighton Shuts Out Midland 4-0

NEW BRIGHTON — New Brighton's Willis fired a four-hit shutout to defeat Midland, 4-0 Wednesday.

The loss was the second in three starts for Midland.

The New Brighton hurler scattered four singles including two by Greg Braund, one of two pitchers used by Midland. Willis showed seven strikeouts and allowed only one walk.

George Marovic, Midland's starting hurler, was charged with the loss but only gave up one run on one hit. Braund took the mound in the fourth inning and gave up three runs on eight hits.

New Brighton opened the scoring in the first inning when Bellan led off with a single, stole second, went to third on an error and scored on another throwing error.

Midland Ties Rochester, Tops Union

Ed Brozic, the number one man on Larry Bender's team, shot a 39 and defeated both his opponents. Bob Needs shot a 51 and lost to both his foes, as did Jim D'Angelo, who fired a 48. At number four Gary Granito shot a 46, beating Union but falling to Rochester. Randy Haggerty shot a 46 at number five, beating Rochester and tying Union. Midland picked up a point for low total score, with 234 strokes to 236 for Rochester and 243 for Union. The match was the first for Union.

WHAT WILL CARS LOOK LIKE IN THE YEAR 2000? Most experts say this will depend on the cities. They expect towns to be long and skinny, a mile wide and 250 miles long. Most surface transport will be electric, and much will be free just as elevators are now.

YOU BREATHE INTO A PLASTIC BAG AND if the yellow crystals there turn green, you are drunk. That's how Britain has cut traffic deaths by 40%. The tough new law should be emulated here. Britain has 10 million cars in an area the size of Oregon. The new law is changing drinking and social habits, but cutting accidents.

LIKE TO CAMP? The typical camper owner is between 25 and 30 years old. Over 25% of owners are skilled craftsmen. Most buy pick-ups for the camper. If you don't wish to invest in your own camper you can rent a truck camper or trailer from one of the many rental agencies. Units are available for a weekend or for as long as you desire.

DEATHLY DRIVING BLUNDER NO. 41: Swerve into an oncoming traffic lane to avoid hitting a dog or cat.

Siebert 2-Hits White Sox As Indians Win 9-0

Sims, awarded the regular catching job by Dark to get more power in the lineup, rapped his first homer with a runner on base in the seventh off former Indian Don McMahon. He greeted Bob Priddy with his second home run leading off in the ninth.

Alvis also hit his homer in the ninth with the bases bare.

Financial Burdens Seen For OHSAA

What's in the future for schoolboy athletics in Ohio? Following is the third and final article in a series about the Ohio High School Athletic Association. It looks to the future of the program and suggests some possible changes. (Third in a Series)

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio high school commissioner sees steady and continued growth for state school boy athletics.

But he also envisions increased financial burdens that could bring a price boost for tickets to the state basketball tournament and expansion of the cage classic to three days instead of two.

"We are seriously looking at the current setup to see what we can come up with," Commissioner Paul Landis said.

The entire Ohio High School Athletic Association sports operation depends on revenue from basketball tournaments.

Registration fees charged to officials brings in some money, but not enough to be significant.

"It seems as though everyone wants more trophies and bigger bonuses," Landis reported.

Bonuses, or cash awards, are given to schools that compete in the regional or state tournaments. A school collects $200 for each regional game it plays and $300 for each state tourney contest.

Some coaches are pushing for a state tournament bonus as high as $1,000.

The association takes a 10 per cent cut from sectional and district meets and realizes almost 70 per cent from total receipts at the regional and state tournaments.

Those figures, and complete receipts from district and regional tournaments, will be made public shortly.

"With increased costs for running the tournaments and constant pressure for more money to run various sports programs, an increase in the price of tickets could be inevitable," Landis said.

All tickets now sell for $2 and there hasn't been a price increase in 10 years when tickets sold for $1.50.

Landis said he personally favors a two-day tournament for the state championship but at two different sites. As an illustration, he points to St. John Arena, the current site, and the Fairgrounds Coliseum at Columbus, for the Class A games, as good locations.

The fairgrounds facility generally is in use at the same time and the conflict could kill that idea.

A three - day tournament, opening Thursday, would have Class A schools playing Thursday, AA Friday with both title games on Saturday. Under one plan, there would be no doubleheaders, only single encounters.

"School principals generally object to a three-day tourney because the kids would be out of school two days. But they could make up the time at the end of the school year," Landis said.

A three-day meet, as advocated by many officials, coaches and sports writers, could ease the constant clamor for tickets from the schools involved and the general public.

Landis, who is optimistic about the future, sees the day when the association's 11-sports program can also include soccer and volleyball.

"I think without a doubt," he said, "interscholastic sports will continue to grow and expand with schools sponsoring a broad program.

"All boys should be given the opportunity to derive the benefits that come from sports participation."

Landis also predicts an expansion of the junior high school program and continued growth for the girls interscholastic program, but not as rapidly because of a lack of facilities.

The association's most pressing problem? Landis believes it's the OHSAA's transfer rule.

"We get more request for eligibility rulings regarding kids moving in and out of districts than anything else in the program."

Although Landis gives no hint of weariness, he already has advised the board of retirement plans. The commissioner will be stepping down in August of 1969.

"It has been a wonderful 45 years of coaching, officiating and administrative work.

Stottlemyre Survives Spit Scare

Stot was working on a 1-0 shutout in the eighth. Roger Repoz was on first with one out and Jay Johnstone, a pinch hitter, was up.

After throwing a strike to Johnstone, the Yankee pitcher walked off the mound and went to the mouth with his fingers. The first base umpire, Al Salerno, called an automatic ball under the new anti-spitter rule.

Stottlemyre started to argue. Manager Ralph Houk rushed out of the dugout and there was a merry scene for a couple of minutes. The Yanks announced they were finishing the game under protest. It didn't matter because they won 1-0.

"The rule says you can go to your mouth on the grass," said Houk. "Salerno claimed Mel went to his mouth while on the ground (skinned area around mound). Mel did it deliberately. They've got things so mixed up by changing this rule back and forth nobody knows what is going on."

Actually, the rule says a pitcher can not go to his mouth within an area included in an 18-foot circle around the mound.

"It shook me up for a minute," said Stottlemyre, w went to 3-1 on Johnstone before he got him out.

New Brighton Shuts Out Midland 4-0

NEW BRIGHTON — New Brighton's Willis fired a four-hit shutout to defeat Midland, 4-0 Wednesday.

The loss was the second in three starts for Midland.

New Brighton scored one run in the opening frame and three more in the fifth to give Willis a working edge.

The New Brighton hurler scattered four singles including two by Greg Braund, one of two pitchers used by Midland. Willis showed seven strikeouts and allowed only one walk.

George Marovic, Midland's starting hurler, was charged with the loss but only gave up one run on one hit. Braund took the mound in the fourth inning and gave up three runs on eight hits.

New Brighton opened the scoring in the first inning when Bellan led off with a single, stole second, went to third on an error and scored on another throwing error.

Midland Ties Rochester, Tops Union

Ed Brozic, the number one man on Larry Bender's team, shot a 39 and defeated both his opponents. Bob Needs shot a 51 and lost to both his foes, as did Jim D'Angelo, who fired a 48. At number four Gary Granito shot a 46, beating Union but falling to Rochester. Randy Haggerty shot a 46 at number five, beating Rochester and tying Union. Midland picked up a point for low total score, with 234 strokes to 236 for Rochester and 243 for Union. The match was the first for Union.

YOUR CAR
By Al Green

WHAT WILL CARS LOOK LIKE IN THE year 2000? Most experts say this will depend on the cities. They expect towns to be long and skinny, a mile wide and 250 miles long. Most surface transport will be electric, and much will be free just as elevators are now.
YOU BREATHE INTO A PLASTIC BAG AND if the yellow crystals there turn green, you are drunk. That's how Britain has cut traffic deaths by 40%. The tough new law should be emulated here. Britain has 19 million cars in an area the size of Oregon. The new law is changing drinking and social habits, but cutting accidents.
LIKE TO CAMP? The typical camper owner is between 40 and 50 years old. Over 26% of owners are skilled craftsmen. Most buy pick-ups for the camper. If you don't wish to invest in your own camper you can rent a truck camper or trailer from one of the many rental agencies. Units are available for a weekend or for as long as you desire.
DEATHLY DRIVING BLUNDER NO. 41: Swerve into an oncoming traffic lane to avoid hitting a dog or cat.
YOU MAY BE LOSING 5 MPG OF PERFORMANCE on your car if the ignition timing and carburetor are not set exactly correct. If yours hasn't been checked during the past four months, bring your car into M & A DODGE East Liverpool. We're experts!
YOUR 1969 CAR PROBABLY WILL HAVE concealed headlights, if the standard issued by the Department of Transportation holds up.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Count Beer's Calories In Calorie Intake

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—I have been taking protamine zinc insulin for over 20 years. Would it be possible for me to switch to the tolbutamide pills?

A—Not without the green light from your doctor. Valuable as this drug is, it is not effective in all diabetics.

Q—Is there a limit to the amount of water a diabetic should take? Why are some diabetics thin and unable to gain weight?

A—Since there are no calories in water there is no need to restrict your intake. Most diabetics take a number of calories they need for maintenance of their normal activities. Some may be able to increase this allowance if they cover the increase with a larger dose of insulin. In this way they should be able to make a gradual gain in weight.

A—Gangrene means local tissue death. The part lost, usually one or more toes, cannot be replaced but careful control of the disease and care to avoid injury or infection help to prevent further gangrene.

Q—I have mild diabetes and take Orinase daily. What is this drug? Are there any bad side effects?

A—Tolbutamide (Orinase) lowers the blood sugar. Too large a dose may bring the blood sugar below the lower limit of normal and cause sweating, trembling, nervous irritability, weakness and a rapid pulse.

Q—Would taking Oronase increase one's nervousness? Since I have been taking it, I have a tremor in my hands, sleep poorly, have frequent urgent urination and have a breaking out on my face. Could it be caused by the drug?

A—Taking tolbutamide would cause some of these symptoms only if the dosage is too great. These symptoms should be promptly reported to your doctor.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M. D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Gasoline, Bottles, Firebombs Confiscated In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Police and National Guardsmen confiscated a large quantity of gasoline, bottles and firebombs in raids Wednesday night, but the city was quiet after two nights of racial disturbances.

The raids were made at a house and a tavern but locations were not disclosed. Five persons, including the tavern owner were taken into custody and held without charges.

Police said they suspected the places raided were the sources of supply for youths in making firebombs.

Four hundred National Guard troops came into the city from Akron Wednesday to relieve Youngstown area guardsmen. Two troops of the 107th Armored Police and National Guardsmen Cavalry Regiment stayed 10 hours, then returned home.

About 600 troops are still on duty.

Mayor Anthony B. Flask said he hoped the situation has improved.

Flask said, however, "We are not optimistic yet. It is impossible to predict when the crisis will end."

The city has eased its 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew by two hours. Now it's 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. Also, Flask said a ban on liquor sales would end at 5 p.m. today.

One of the two policemen shot Monday night had a relapse at South Side Hospital and is reported in poor condition. Patrolman William Grady, shot in the abdomen, is in South Side Hospital.

Since Monday, 10 adults and 44 juveniles have been arrested. Of the adults, 71 were booked for violating the curfew and 28 of the juveniles were taken to the Mahoning County Juvenile Research Center. Sixteen youths are in county jail.

Arson Blamed In Church Fire

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP)—Fire which partially destroyed the Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church at Bettsville, about six miles east of here, was caused by arson, Seneca County Sheriff Robert G. Wagner said today.

Wagner said the fire started in two places but had only been burning about 10 minutes when the flames were spotted by a passing truck driver. Damage was estimated at between $5,000 to $7,000.

The church was taken over a year ago by a Negro group from Fostoria, Findlay, Tiffin and Fremont.

Hybrid corn is the result of in-breeding selected strains to develop desirable qualities, then crossing the strains. Often two hybrids are interbred to create what is called a double cross.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Count Beer's Calories In Calorie Intake

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—There is a diet beer with no carbohydrates on the market. Is it safe for a diabetic to drink it?

A — "NO carbohydrate" doesn't mean no calories. In figuring your daily caloric intake the calories in the beer must be included.

Q—Can a diabetic eat low-calorie cookies? If so, how many? Can a diabetic eat honey?

Q—I have been taking protamine zinc insulin for over 20 years. Would it be possible for me to switch to the tolbutamide pills?

A—Not without the green light from your doctor. Valuable as this drug is, it is not effective in all diabetics.

Q—Is there a limit to the amount of water a diabetic should take? Why are some diabetics thin and unable to gain weight?

A—Since there are no calories in water there is no need to restrict your intake. Most diabetics take a number of calories they need for maintenance of their normal activities. Some may be able to increase this allowance if they cover the increase with a larger dose of insulin. In this way they should be able to make a gradual gain in weight.

Q—Is there any cure for diabetic gangrene?

A—Gangrene means local tissue death. The part lost, usually one or more toes, cannot be replaced but careful control of the disease and care to avoid injury or infection help to prevent further gangrene.

Q—I have mild diabetes and take Orinase daily. What is this drug? Are there any bad side effects?

A—Tolbutamide (Orinase) lowers the blood sugar. Too large a dose may bring the blood sugar below the lower limit of normal and cause sweating, trembling, nervous irritability, weakness and a rapid pulse.

Q—Would taking Oronase increase one's nervousness? Since I have been taking it, I have a tremor in my hands, sleep poorly, have frequent urgent urination and have a breaking out on my face. Could it be caused by the drug?

A—Taking tolbutamide would cause some of these symptoms only if the dosage is too great. These symptoms should be promptly reported to your doctor.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M. D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Gasoline, Bottles, Firebombs Confiscated In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Police and Nalinal Guardsmen confiscated a large quantity of gasoline, bottles and firebombs in raids Wednesday night, but the city was quiet after two nights of racial disturbances.

The raids were made at a house and a tavern but locations were not disclosed. Five persons, including the tavern owner were taken into custody and held without charges.

Police said they suspected the places raided were the sources of supply for youths in making firebombs.

Four hundred National Guard troops came into the city from Akron Wednesday to relieve Youngstown area guardsmen. Two troops of the 107th Armored Police and National Guardsmen Cavalry Regiment stayed 10 hours, then returned home.

About 600 troops are still on duty.

Mayor Anthony B. Flask said he hoped the situation has improved.

Flask said, however, "We are not optimistic yet. It is impossible to predict when the crisis will end."

The city has eased its 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew by two hours. Now it's 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. Also, Flask said a ban on liquor sales would end at 5 p.m. today.

One of the two policemen shot Monday night had a relapse at South Side Hospital and is reported in poor condition. Patrolman William Grady, shot in the abdomen, is in South Side Hospital.

Since Monday, 10 adults and 44 juveniles have been arrested. Of the adults, 71 were booked for violating the curfew and 28 of the juveniles were taken to the Mahoning County Juvenile Research Center. Sixteen youths are in county jail.

Arson Blamed In Church Fire

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP)—Fire which partially destroyed the Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church at Bettsville, about six miles east of here, was caused by arson, Seneca County Sheriff Robert G. Wagner said today.

Wagner said the fire started in two places but had only been burning about 10 minutes when the flames were spotted by a passing truck driver. Damage was estimated at between $5,000 to $7,000.

The church was taken over a ago by a Negro group from Fostoria, Findlay, Tiffin and Fremont.

Hybrid corn is the result of in-breeding selected strains to develop desirable qualities, then crossing the strains. Often two hybrids are interbred to create what is called a double cross.

WHAT is A CUSTOMER?

A CUSTOMER is the most important person ever in our office . . . in person or by mail.

A CUSTOMER is not dependent on us . . . we are dependent on him.

A CUSTOMER is not an interruption of our work . . . he is the purpose of it. We are not doing him a favor by serving him . . . he is doing us a favor by giving us the opportunity to do so.

A CUSTOMER is not a cold statistic . . . he is a flesh-and-blood human being with feelings and emotions like your own, and with biases and prejudices.

A CUSTOMER is not someone to argue or match wits with. Nobody ever won an argument with a customer.

A CUSTOMER is a person who brings us his wants. It is our job to handle them profitably to him and to ourselves.

Go with the leader.. Go Triumph!

In every field there is a leader. In motorcycling it's Triumph. With a tradition that dates back to 1902, the British-made Triumph has proven its superior performance in competition. Rugged good looks afford a pride of ownership. There are seven new models to choose from, from the frisky 200cc Mountain Cub to the champion 650cc Bonneville. So no matter what motorcycle you now ride, it's time to step up to the leader and go Triumph.

WHAT is A CUSTOMER?

A CUSTOMER is the most important person ever in our office . . . in person or by mail.

A CUSTOMER is not dependent on us . . . we are dependent on him.

A CUSTOMER is not an interruption of our work . . . he is the purpose of it. We are not doing him a favor by serving him . . . he is doing us a favor by giving us the opportunity to do so.

A CUSTOMER is not a cold statistic . . . he is a flesh-and-blood human being with feelings and emotions like your own, and with biases and prejudices.

A CUSTOMER is not someone to argue or match wits with. Nobody ever won an argument with a customer.

A CUSTOMER is a person who brings us his wants. It is our job to handle them profitably to him and to ourselves.

NEW CHOICE OF ENGINES
Six heavy-duty truck engines including International 304 and 345 engines built for toughest jobs and loads.

NEW CHOICE OF TRANSMISSIONS
Synchromesh in three, four or five-speed designs, including 5-speed with overdrive. Also, 3-speed automatic.

NEW LUXURY LOOK AND RIDE — MORE PICKUP COMBINATIONS THAN WITH ANY OTHER MAKE

Pick your power. Combine your choice of engines, power trains and box sizes. No other pickup offers you so many combinations. No other pickup dealer makes it so easy to trade.

Go with the leader.. Go Triumph!

In every field there is a leader. In motorcycling it's Triumph. With a tradition that dates back to 1902, the British-made Triumph has proven its superior performance in competition. Rugged good looks afford a pride of ownership. There are seven new models to choose from, from the frisky 200cc Mountain Cub to the champion 650cc Bonneville. So no matter what motorcycle you now ride, it's time to step up to the leader and go Triumph.

Junior Editors Quiz on PARTRIDGES

QUESTION: What is the difference between the partridge, the quail and the bobwhite?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: These names are often confused, being differently used in different places. These are all stout-bodied birds related to chickens. The word partridge originated in the Old World. In our country, two main kinds of birds are called partridge. In southern and some western places, the word means the smaller bird elsewhere called quail or bobwhite. In the northeastern U.S., it means the larger ruffed grouse. We illustrate these two types. The bobwhite or quail is a most attractive bird whose cheerful call is known to most of us. The plump little bobwhite is the farmer's friend, since it eats mostly weed seed or pestiferous insects. It is also prized for good food and is a favorite game bird. (There are other kinds of quail, such as the handsome California quail, with plumelike feathers on the head). The ruffed grouse is a big bird, about 18 inches long. It lives in northern woods. During the mating season, the male makes a drumming sound by vibrating his wings. He elevates the dark feathers around his neck and spreads his handsome tail feathers, putting on the display shown in our picture.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1899, the U.S. government proclaimed a treaty with Spain, ending the Spanish-American War.

On this date:

In 1865, President Abraham Lincoln made his last public speech. He spoke about reconstruction of the South in an address to a group of citizens assembled before the White House.

In 1926, the American horticulturist, Luther Burbank, died.

Five years ago: U.N. Secretary-General U Thant voiced approval of the U.S.-Soviet agreement to establish a direct communications link, the so-called "hot line."
